Common ground on abortion not impossible, but tough to find

January 27, 2010

Polls indicate Americans are tired of abortion warfare. Experts say finding common ground will be difficult—especially in light of recent health care battles—but not impossible.

---

Specialized Texas Baptist teams enter Haiti to offer relief

January 27, 2010

Texas Baptists helped a medical team from Baylor Hospital go serve in Haiti and have other small, specialized disaster response groups lined up to do likewise, including a Texas Baptist Men assessment team.

---

Former Southwest Baptist

University student pleads guilty to assault

January 27, 2010
SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (ABP) — A former football player at Southwest Baptist University pleaded guilty Jan. 25 to second-degree assault in a 2006 beating that left a Bolivar, Mo., man permanently disabled.

---

Missionaries offer comfort to injured quake victims from Haiti

January 27, 2010
International Mission Board missionaries help break through language barriers as a clinic in the Dominican Republic swells with injured victims of Haiti's earthquake.

---

Amarillo church gives entire

weekend offering to TBM Haiti relief project

January 27, 2010

Paramount Baptist Church in Amarillo gave $63,100 to Texas Baptist Men for disaster relief work following the Jan. 12 earthquake in Haiti. The congregation sent its full weekend offering to Texas Baptist Men despite running $140,000 behind its annual budget.

---

Baptist World Aid workers say situation in Haiti still desperate

January 27, 2010

A Baptist rescue team in Haiti described the situation there as desperate more than two weeks after a massive earthquake devastated the island nation Jan. 12.

---

Baylor University, Baylor

College of Medicine consider closer ties

January 27, 2010

More than 40 years after Baylor University in Waco and Baylor College of Medicine in Houston separated, the two institutions have begun talks regarding a strengthened relationship—but not without sparking controversy.

---

New evangelical group calls for cancellation of Haiti’s debt

January 27, 2010

A new organization of progressive evangelicals has formed calling for complete cancellation of Haiti's foreign debt in order to aid an already fragile economy devastated by a Jan.12 earthquake.

---

Albert Reyes elected sixth

Buckner president

January 27, 2010

Albert Reyes was elected as the sixth president in the 131-year history of Buckner International Jan. 22, succeeding Ken Hall, who remains with Buckner as chief executive officer.

---

In face of uncertainty, Temple church members cling to faith

January 27, 2010

In the days following the Jan. 19 fire that destroyed the facility of First Baptist Church in Temple, many things are still uncertain. But members insist some things are rock-solid sure—God is in control, he loves his people and there is power in prayer.

---

Baptist assessment team reports difficult conditions in

Haiti

January 27, 2010

Members of Southern Baptists' disaster assessment team reported from Port-au-Prince Jan. 20, describing severe damage in Haiti's capital city and snarled traffic, but noted Baptists had been able to help "with a couple of deliveries" of aid.

---

Haitians seek shelter near church in Port-au-Prince

January 27, 2010

A blue tarp tied to what is left of Shiloh Baptist Church in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, serves as a safe haven for some members who survived the Jan. 12 earthquake.