

Communio and Texas Baptists announce partnership

March 11, 2026

The Baptist General Convention of Texas announced a partnership with national marriage ministry Communio, aimed at offering church marriage support.

On the Move: Knox

March 11, 2026

Pastoral change noted in Vernon.

Around the State: HCU faculty found school psychology association

March 11, 2026

Houston Christian University faculty members Leigh Kent and Traci Whittenberg have founded the Houston Association of School Psychologists and recently hosted its first-ever Midwinter Conference.

WMU executive director search started

March 11, 2026

The president of the Woman's Missionary Union of the SBC has formed a search committee for the organization's next executive director-treasurer.

Texas/Ukraine church partnership grows

March 11, 2026

The Healing Path Movement, a Texas/Ukrainian partnership started in November, has experienced an increase in church commitments.

Beth Moore to end Living Proof

events in 2027

March 11, 2026

The best-selling author and longtime Bible teacher still plans to speak but will no longer host large-scale events.

Report challenges U.S. support for international religious freedom

March 11, 2026

USCIRF's 2026 report lists Nigeria, Afghanistan, India, and Vietnam as Countries of Particular Concern, citing widespread violence, persecution, and displacement.

Violence in Nigeria sparks debate on religion

March 11, 2026

Nigeria faces a "terrifying crisis of religious violence," with attacks on Christian communities fueling fears of persecution.

Celebrating Churches: Dorrell retiring from Church Under the Bridge

March 11, 2026

After 1,736 Sundays—more than 33 years—Jimmy Dorrell has announced his retirement as pastor of Church Under the Bridge, effective the week after Easter.

Save Ukraine rescues 1,169 children from Russian occupation

March 11, 2026

With the war in its fifth year, humanitarian group Save Ukraine seeks to rescue thousands of abducted and persecuted Ukrainian children from Russia.

Texans on Mission Israel feeding team on standby

March 11, 2026

Texans on Mission is on standby with a feeding team after the United States and Israel conducted military strikes on Iran.

Less than half of Americans say religion is ‘very important’

March 11, 2026

Despite official promotion of religion, the latest Gallup Poll shows no evidence of religious revival in America.