- ◆ Margie Thomas was the featured artist during the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor's homecoming activities. Her exhibit will be on view through Dec. 13 on the second floor of Townsend Memorial Library.
- ◆ Youth throughout the state are being sought by the Fellowship of Baptist Educators as correspondents with Chinese students in grades 7-12 who are learning English. Sunday school classes and Acteen and Challenger groups are encouraged to request letters from Chinese students that the American youth will answer. Requests for letters should include the name and mailing and e-mail address of the group leader; the number of letters needed; name of the church or group; and a promise that every letter will be answered. Many Christians use this activity to share their faith with Chinese students. Letters will arrive from China in December and be sent to requesting groups in late January. To obtain letters, contact John Carter at j-fcarter-@juno.com by Jan. 15.
