TEXAS BAPTIST FORUM

Discerning eyes

The 2004 BGCT convention in San Antonio was one of the most historic conventions I can remember.

Our leaders put before us a challenging vision of our future. This new vision will streamline our governance and challenge our convention to be much more "church-centered" rather than "program centered."

You can see the fingerprints of our Lord in much that was presented to us, but I am also deeply concerned about other trends.
