UMHB builders

University of Mary

Hardin-Baylor
students spent 20 hours recently in an all-night
construction
competition,
building five playhouses for needy children in the Belton area.

Inspired by television programs like
"Home Makeover,"
students were divided into five teams and
provided with the building and
decorating materials they needed. Melissa Prine (left) of Spring, Ryan Ohendalski of Huntsville and Kristin Chamberlain of Austin paint a United States flag
design on a playhouse for children whose father is stationed in Iraq.
