

Texas Baptist universities preparing 3,000 students for ministry

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/25/05

Texas Baptist universities preparing 3,000 students for ministry

By John Hall

Texas Baptist Communications

More than 3,000 undergraduate students are preparing for ministry on Baptist General Convention of Texas-affiliated universities.

North Carolina convention, retirement home 'adjusting' relationship

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/25/05

North Carolina convention, retirement home 'adjusting' relationship

By Tony Cartledge

North Carolina Biblical Recorder

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. (ABP)—Directors of the North Carolina Baptist Retirement Home are seeking to “adjust certain aspects of their relationship” with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention “while reaffirming other traditional ties.”

Children want justice for mother's 1964 murder by racists

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/24/05

Children want justice for mother's 1964 murder by racists

By Analiz Gonzalez

Associated Baptist Press

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (ABP)—Many Southerners remember 1964 as a year of havoc—the year racial tension escalated to a peak. Protests for equality were met with vandalism and even murder.

Survey finds teens' pro-marriage attitudes paired with tolerance

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/24/05

Survey finds teens' pro-marriage attitudes paired with tolerance

By David Winfrey

Kentucky Western Recorder

PISCATAWAY, N.J. (ABP)—High-school seniors might be developing more pro-marriage attitudes for themselves, but they increasingly are more accepting of non-marriage arrangements for others, a recent report revealed.

Slovenian camp leads students through ‘vertical ministry’

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/24/05

Slovenian camp leads students through 'vertical ministry'

By David Coffield

Hardin-Simmons University

When Curt Howell learned a high-adventure youth camp near Bovec, Slovenia, needed climbing facilitators, he immediately mobilized his rock-climbing and backpacking ministry, Crux, and volunteered to help.

New WMU president has heart for ‘MKs’

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/24/05

New WMU president has heart for 'MKs'

By Charlie Warren

Arkansas Baptist News

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (ABP)—The newly elected president of the Woman's Missionary Union knows how hard it can be to grow up as the child of missionaries. She did so herself.

Committee drafts proposal on North Carolina churches funding CBF

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/24/05

Committee drafts proposal on North Carolina churches funding CBF

By Tony Cartledge

North Carolina Biblical Recorder

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. (ABP)—The North Carolina Baptist State

Convention board of directors' executive committee narrowly approved a budget proposal that retains direct funding for the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, but it could limit representation from churches that choose to give all or the majority of their national missions offering through the moderate group.

BaptistWay Bible Series for Sept. 4: In the midst of change, God is there

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/23/05

BaptistWay Bible Series for Sept. 4

In the midst of change, God is there

• Joshua 1

By Ronnie Prevost

Family Bible Series for Sept. 4: Purpose stems from a right relationship with God

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/23/05

Family Bible Series for Sept. 4

Purpose stems from a right relationship with God

- Ecclesiastes 1:13-2:22

By Donald Raney

Explore the Bible Series for Sept. 4: What do you think about the gospel?

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/23/05

Explore the Bible Series for Sept. 4

What do you think about the gospel?

- Romans 1:1-17

By Trey Turner

DBU, Buckner share love with orphans

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/19/05

DBU, Buckner share love with orphans

By Hailey Erickson

Dallas Baptist University

A group of Dallas Baptist University students and staff recently shared the love of Christ in orphanages in Guatemala.

European Baptists unlikely to join network

August 25, 2005

Posted: 8/19/05

European Baptists unlikely to join network

By Greg Warner

Associated Baptist Press

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (ABP)—Baptist leaders in Europe predict the Southern Baptist Convention will have a hard time drawing Baptists from the continent into a new international network that, some say, will compete with the Baptist World Alliance.