

At 40 years, no break for Texas Baptist Men

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/30/07

At 40 years, no break for Texas Baptist Men

By Barbara Bedrick

Texas Baptist Communications

DALLAS—Forty years of labor ought to entitle a worker to a break. In the Old Testament, even Noah got one. But don't tell that to Texas Baptist Men volunteers. They are nailing a church back together again in Sabine Pass.

Texas Baptist Men, a missions organization affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, takes no spring break. Instead, its volunteers work to help people who lost their church building to Hurricane Rita.

Texas Tidbits

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/30/07

Texas Tidbits

Scholarship fund benefits HPU student workers. The Landon Carter and Edna Fay Johnson Work Scholarship Fund has been established at Howard Payne University to pay students for their on-campus work. The fund honors the memories of the Johnsons, members of First Baptist Church in Ponca City, Okla. Mrs. Johnson graduated from Howard Payne and taught math at the school nine years.

The Ancient Treasures of the Holy Land exhibit features an ossuary (casket) that many archaeologists think contained the bones of Simon of Cyrenia.

Holy Land relics come to Texas. An exhibit of Holy Land relics—believed to be the largest ever to tour the United States—is on display at Dallas Fair Park through July 28. The 27,000-square-foot exhibit includes more than 350 relics and rare sacred texts, including many never before seen outside of Jerusalem. The display includes portions of the Leviticus and Deuteronomy Dead Sea Scrolls; the ossuary (bone box) archaeologists believe held the remains of Simon the Cyrene, who carried the cross for Jesus; a 2,000-year-old sandal found at Masada; Egyptian artifacts, some over 5,000 years old; ancient weapons, including bronze spear heads, battle axes and a sword dating as early as 2200 B.C.

Maston lectures slated at Logsdon. Allen Verhey of Duke University is the featured speaker for the T.B. Maston Christian ethics lectures April 2 and 3 at Hardin-Simmons University's Logsdon School of Theology. Topics include "Reading Scripture and Caring at the End of Life" and "Praying and Caring at the End of Life." The lectures are free and open to the public.

TOGETHER: Jesus is the way, the truth & the life

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/30/07

TOGETHER: Jesus is the way, the truth & the life

A speech by Charles Kimball at this year's Christian Life Conference has generated a lot of discussion. Kimball, a professor at Wake Forest University in North Carolina, said Christians and Muslims "are talking about the same God."

"There is really not much ambiguity about this. Allah is simply the Arabic word for God," Kimball said. "The name for God in Islam, in Arabic, is Allah. This is not another god. This is the same God that Jews and Christians are talking about.”

Executive Director
BGCT Executive Board

This language is a bit jarring. It’s not how we Baptists normally talk. Kimball was referring to the fact Christians and Muslims, as well as Jews, trace their theological heritage to the God of Abraham. He also was stating the linguistic fact that Middle Eastern Christians who speak Arabic use the word “Allah” (God) in prayers, Scripture reading and worship.

To say that the God of Christians, Jews and Muslims is the same God is a literary and historical understanding of the common origins we have in the story of Abraham. But the reality of Jesus Christ as God incarnate means that any view of God that does not look through the eyes of Jesus is going to be flawed and inadequate to provide salvation.

More than a day at the beach

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/30/07

More than a day at the beach

By Jennifer Sicking

University of Mary Hardin-Baylor

BELTON—Spring break was more than just a day or two at the beach for 40 University of Mary Hardin-Baylor students this year.

They and three university staff members journeyed to South Padre Island to make an impact in lives of fellow students as part of Beach Reach, an annual evangelistic outreach.

WMU adopts $5.2 million Texas missions giving goal

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/30/07

WMU adopts $5.2 million

Texas missions giving goal

By John Hall

Texas Baptist Communications

DALLAS—The Woman’s Missionary Union of Texas board of directors adopted a $5.2 million goal for this year’s Mary Hill Davis Offering for Texas Missions.

Texas WMU promotes the offering—most commonly emphasized in the fall but collected throughout the year—and distributes the funds for specific projects proposed by the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Texas Baptist Men, Texas WMU and Texas Baptist institutions.

Storylist for 4/02/07 issue

March 30, 2007

Storylist for week of 4/02/07

TAKE ME TO: Top Story | Texas | Opinion | Baptists | Faith & Culture | Book Reviews | Classifieds | Departments | Bible Study

Students Minister at Spring Break

- TAKING THE PLUNGE: Beach Reach volunteers immersed in missions service

- Baylor fraternity brothers serve God in the Ozarks

- DBU students build homes in South Carolina & South Dakota

- HBU students take local & global missions plunge

- ETBU nursing students put training into practice in Mexico

- Students find missions calling through BSM

- More than a day at the beach

- At 40 years, no break for Texas Baptist Men

- WMU adopts \$5.2 million Texas missions giving goal

- BGCT fills four strategist positions

- Two generations of Wiesers serve as student missionaries

- Texas Tidbits

- Keep 'dream stealers' at bay, keynote speaker urges lay leaders & ministers

- On the Move

- Around the State

- Too many trips to the wedding altar may trip up presidential contenders

- Baptist Briefs

- Evangelical support for Iraq war apparently wavering
- More Americans exercise choice in religion
- Faith Digest

- Books reviewed in this issue: 10 Things Every Minister Needs to Know by Ronnie Floyd, The Eleven Commandments by Preston Taylor and A Mind for God by James Emery White.

- Around the State
- On the Move
- Cartoon
- Classified Ads

- EDITORIAL: Worse than crashing a \$1.5M Ferrari
- DOWN HOME: Pucker up for some really good news
- TOGETHER: Jesus is the way, the truth & the life
- 2nd Opinion: Program changes Texas, life by life
- RIGHT or WRONG? Commercialism in church
- Texas Baptist Forum

- Cybercolumn by John Duncan: Where would we be without Easter?

Previously Posted

- Mohler's 'gay baby' blog stirs bio-ethics debate
 - Dismissed professor files lawsuit against Southwestern seminary
 - Powell to retire; Garland named dean at Truett Seminary
 - Christians join war protest in Washington
 - Hammond elected NAMB president, plans closer relationship with IMB
 - Baylor engineering team to bring electricity to Honduran village
 - Generous Arkansas family receives generosity from TV makeover
 - Teens look to parents, clergy for guidance on sex
 - Author wrote a book he can no longer read
 - See a complete list of articles from our previous 3/19/ 2007 issue here.
-

CYBERCOLUMN by John Duncan: Where would we be without Easter?

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/30/07

CYBER COLUMN: Where would we be without Easter?

By John Duncan

I'm sitting here under the old oak tree, watching the clouds pour the rain on mother earth. Drip, drip, drip. The poet Percy Shelley wrote about them in his poem, The Cloud: "I bring fresh showers for thirsting flowers, From the seas and the streams... ." Today as I think of dreary clouds, I think of the sun behind the clouds. Forecasters say the sun will shine tomorrow.

John Duncan

I dedicate this column to pastors awaiting the sunlight of Easter in the clouds of ministry.

RIGHT or WRONG?

Commercialism at church

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/30/07

RIGHT or WRONG?

Commercialism at church

“Is it ethical for church leaders, such as Sunday school teachers and church staff, to sell products to other members of their congregation?”

Bible Studies for Life Series for

April 1: Jesus died that his people might have life

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/20/07

Bible Studies for Life Series for April 1

Jesus died that his people might have life

• John 12:12-13:30; 18:1-19:42

By David Harp

Explore the Bible Series for April 1: Exercise the power of submission

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/20/07

Explore the Bible Series for April 1

Exercise the power of submission

• 1 Peter 3:1-12

By Kathryn Aragon

First Baptist Church, Duncanville

Let's face it—none of us likes to talk about submission. We're afraid we will be told to do something we don't want to do. Or worse yet, we will be forced to give up our will to someone else. Sadly, even between husband and wife, submission is a topic we'd rather not discuss.

BaptistWay Bible Series for April 8: God's plans have room for even the least likely

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/28/07

BaptistWay Bible Series for April 8

God's plans have room for even the least likely

- Acts 9:10-28

By Leroy Fenton

Bible Studies for Life Series for April 8: Jesus lives for us

March 30, 2007

Posted: 3/28/07

Bible Studies for Life Series for April 8

Jesus lives for us

- John 20:1-18

By David Harp