

Study suggests American Muslims more mainstream than in Europe

June 1, 2007

Posted: 6/01/07

Study suggests American Muslims more mainstream than in Europe

By Robert Marus

Associated Baptist Press

WASHINGTON (ABP)—One of the most comprehensive studies of its kind suggests Muslims in the United States are far better assimilated into the nation's culture—and far less likely to espouse extremist beliefs—than their counterparts in Europe.

The stark contrasts between the two groups may have something to do with the American traditions of religious freedom and church-state separation, according to experts in the field.

BaptistWay Bible Series for June 10: Authentic faith is not contingent on circumstance

June 1, 2007

Posted: 5/31/07

BaptistWay Bible Series for June 10

Authentic faith is not contingent on circumstance

• Job 3

By Adam Grubb

Reynolds lauded as ‘friend of all true Baptists’

June 1, 2007

Posted: 5/30/07

Reynolds lauded as 'friend of all true Baptists'

By Marv Knox

Editor

WACO—More than 1,300 family and friends flooded First Baptist Church in Waco May 30, bidding farewell to Herbert H. Reynolds, the 11th president of Baylor University, lauded as “a friend to all true Baptists.”

Reynolds died of an apparent heart attack May 25, a day after he and his wife, Joy, arrived at their summer home in Angel Fire, N.M. He was 77.

"A great leader has fallen, and he has left an empty space in our hearts, in our lives, in our community," Paul Powell, dean of Baylor's George W. Truett Theological Seminary and a friend of Reynolds' for 26 years, told the crowd.

Herbert H.
Reynolds speaking at the inauguration of Baylor
President
John Lilley in April 2006.
(Photo by Robert
Rogers/Baylor Photography)

Huckabee cancels Covenant speech over Jimmy Carter's criticism of Bush

June 1, 2007
Posted: 5/29/07

Huckabee cancels Covenant speech over Jimmy Carter's criticism of Bush

By Greg Warner

Associated Baptist Press

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (ABP)—Republican presidential candidate Mike Huckabee has cancelled plans to speak at the New Baptist Covenant Celebration next January because of organizer Jimmy Carter's recent criticism of President Bush.

Carter criticized Bush's foreign policy in a May 19 interview with the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette. "I think as far as the adverse impact on the nation around the world, this administration has been the worst in history," Carter said.

Missouri fundamentalists organize against their former movement

June 1, 2007

Posted: 5/29/07

Missouri fundamentalists organize against their former movement

By Bill Webb

Missouri Word & Way

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (ABP)—Eleven ministers who supported fundamentalists' efforts to take control of the Missouri Baptist Convention now say that the people they put in power have taken conservatism too far.

The group voiced its concerns publicly in a "Save Our Convention" information session May 15 at First Baptist Church of Harvester in St. Charles, Mo. The meeting drew about 175 people.

TBM trains Mexico's top-ranking officials in disaster response

June 1, 2007

Posted: 5/29/07

TBM trains Mexico's top-ranking officials in disaster response

By Barbara Bedrick

Texas Baptist Communications

JUAREZ, Mexico—The ongoing partnership between Baptists in Texas and Mexico led to an opportunity to provide disaster response training for top-ranking Mexican government officials.

Texas Baptist Men volunteers also helped equip Mexican leaders and pastors for future emergencies through the help of three Baptist churches in Juarez.

Reynolds' funeral, memorial services set

June 1, 2007

Posted: 5/27/07

Reynolds' funeral, memorial services set

Memorial services have been set for former Baylor University President Herbert H. Reynolds.

Reynolds died Friday of an apparent heart attack while on vacation in Angel Fire, N.M. He was 77.

Reynolds served as Baylor's 11th president from 1981, when he replaced Abner McCall, until he retired from the office in 1995, becoming Baylor chancellor the next day. In 2000, a year in which he received the Baylor Founders Medal, Reynolds stepped down as chancellor and became president emeritus.

Though no formal visitation is planned, anyone wishing to pay respect at Reynolds, casket can do so Monday from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Tuesday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Wilkirson-Hatch-Bailey Funeral Home, 6101 Bosque Blvd., and Tuesday from 4 to 9 p.m. in the Paul W. Powell Chapel at the George W. Truett Theological Seminary on the Baylor campus, according to funeral home officials.

RIGHT or WRONG? Responding to tragedy

June 1, 2007
Posted: 5/25/07

RIGHT or WRONG? Responding to tragedy

In light of the recent events at Virginia Tech, how can my church respond to this tragedy—and others like it? And what can my congregation do to prevent alienation, hostility and anger around us?

Falwell leaves complex legacy

June 1, 2007
Updated: 5/25/07

Falwell leaves complex legacy

By Robert Marus

Associated Baptist Press

WASHINGTON (ABP)—Many social observers agree: few figures in the second half of the 20th century proved as polarizing in American popular and political culture as Jerry Falwell, who died May 15 at the age of 73.

But the outspoken preacher and political activist, who preached a black-and-white gospel and described a world of evil versus good in equally stark terms, left behind a legacy far more nuanced and complex.

Jerry Falwell
speaking at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 2004.
(SWBTS
Photo by Matt Miller)

Republicans join Democrats on

New Covenant program

June 1, 2007

Updated: 5/25/07

Republicans join Democrats on New Covenant program

By Greg Warner

Associated Baptist Press

ATLANTA (ABP)—Organizers for next January's New Baptist Covenant gathering announced the speakers for the historic three-day meeting—with former President Jimmy Carter making good on a pledge to enlist prominent Republican Baptists to complement the mostly Democratic headliners.

Republican Senators Lindsay Graham (S.C.) and Charles Grassley (Iowa) have been named participants for the Jan. 30-Feb. 1 New Baptist Covenant Celebration in Atlanta, billed as the broadest Baptist meeting in America since Baptists divided over slavery before the Civil War. Organizers hope to attract 20,000 people to the event.

Vietnam vets to attend reunion of Saigon Baptist church

June 1, 2007

Updated: 5/25/07

Jim Humphries on a motorcycle during the time he and his wife were missionaries
in Saigon,
now Ho Chi
Minh City.
They are planning a reunion for their former church members
July 27-29
in Tyler.

Vietnam vets to attend

reunion of Saigon Baptist church

By Hannah Elliott

Associated Baptist Press

TYLER (ABP)—Jim and Mary Humphries are planning a reunion for members of their former church, Trinity Baptist in Saigon, now called Ho Chi Minh City. They haven't seen many of their mostly military church members in over 35 years. But they expect to reconnect as if they had never left.

"The bond formed between military men and women and missionaries who worked beside them has grown through the years and is now stronger than ever before," Mary Humphries said. "That was a very special time in the lives of all who served together."

No lawsuits planned; too costly & complex, lawyer suggests

June 1, 2007

Updated: 5/25/07

No lawsuits planned; too costly

& complex, lawyer suggests

By Ken Camp

Managing Editor

The Baptist General Convention of Texas will not file lawsuits to recover church-starting money apparently mismanaged in the Rio Grande Valley.

Civil litigation would be costly and complex, and the statute of limitations could prevent recovery of a significant portion of the misappropriated money, attorney Stephen Wakefield wrote in a letter to the BGCT Executive Board. BGCT Executive Director Charles Wade reported the recommendation to the board at its May 21-22 meeting in Dallas.