

“The most often sung artist anywhere” keeps spotlight on God

March 6, 2009

With more than 44 million people singing his songs each week, Time magazine lauded Texan Chris Tomlin as the “most often sung artist anywhere.”

“The most often sung artist anywhere” keeps spotlight on God

March 6, 2009

With more than 44 million people singing his songs each week, Time magazine lauded Texan Chris Tomlin as the “most often sung artist anywhere.”

Faith Digest: Fewer Jews switch faiths

March 6, 2009

Jews are less likely than Catholics or Protestants to change faiths, though religious switching nationwide has increased since 1965.

Faith Digest: Fewer Jews switch faiths

March 6, 2009

Jews are less likely than Catholics or Protestants to change faiths, though religious switching nationwide has increased since 1965.

Dobson departure from Focus on the Family the ânext step in a transition planâ

March 6, 2009

Focus on the Family founder James Dobson has resigned as chairman of the Colorado ministry he started 32 years ago, but he will continue to host his daily radio broadcast and is expected to stay involved in national politics.

Dobson departure from Focus on the Family the ânext step in a transition planâ

March 6, 2009

Focus on the Family founder James Dobson has resigned as chairman of the Colorado ministry he started 32 years ago, but he will continue to host his daily radio broadcast and is expected to stay involved in national politics.

Religious broadcasters brace for uncertain future

March 6, 2009

Digital podcasts and streaming video might bring Christian audiences inspirational messages in the future, but they aren't bringing in the cash broadcast ministries need to weather a painful economy.

Religious broadcasters brace for uncertain future

March 6, 2009

Digital podcasts and streaming video might bring Christian audiences inspirational messages in the future, but they aren't bringing in the cash broadcast ministries need to weather a painful economy.

Arkansas guns-in-church bill dies in Senate

March 6, 2009

A highly publicized bill passed that would have allowed concealed weapons in Arkansas churches died Feb. 25 in the state Senate.

Arkansas guns-in-church bill

dies in Senate

March 6, 2009

A highly publicized bill passed that would have allowed concealed weapons in Arkansas churches died Feb. 25 in the state Senate.

Parachurch groups not yet feeling economy's pinch, survey says

March 6, 2009

Faith-based charities haven't been hit as hard by the economic downturn as expected, says a new survey by the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability.

Parachurch groups not yet feeling economy's pinch, survey

says

March 6, 2009

Faith-based charities haven't been hit as hard by the economic downturn as expected, says a new survey by the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability.