

Yearbook notes membership declines for Catholics, Southern Baptists

February 24, 2009

The 2009 Yearbook of American & Canadian Churches is now available for order from the National Council of Churches.

NEW YORK (ABP) — The nation's two largest Christian denominations are experiencing slight but statistically significant membership declines, according to the latest edition of the National Council of Churches' Yearbook of American & Canadian Churches.

Released Feb. 23, the 77th annual compilation of church statistics reports membership in the Roman Catholic Church declined 0.59 percent last year. It also reported a and a 0.24 percent drop in the Southern Baptist Convention's membership.

---

Yearbook notes membership declines for Catholics, Southern Baptists

February 24, 2009

The 2009 Yearbook of American & Canadian Churches is now available for order from the National Council of Churches.

NEW YORK (ABP) — The nation's two largest Christian denominations are experiencing slight but statistically significant membership declines, according to the latest edition of the National Council of Churches' Yearbook of American & Canadian Churches.

Released Feb. 23, the 77th annual compilation of church statistics reports membership in the Roman Catholic Church declined 0.59 percent last year. It also reported a and a 0.24 percent drop in the Southern Baptist Convention's membership.

---

Missouri church committed to be in the cityâ€”for good and for God

February 24, 2009

In the heart of a historic downtown St. Louis neighborhood stands Third Baptist Church, a church dedicated to be “in the city for good.” The congregation includes everyone from the homeless to millionaires in a variety of colors and ages.

---

Missouri church committed to be in the cityâ€”for good and for God

February 24, 2009

In the heart of a historic downtown St. Louis neighborhood stands Third Baptist Church, a church dedicated to be “in the city for good.” The congregation includes everyone from the homeless to millionaires in a variety of colors and ages.

---

Eye-catching, eco-friendly church structure turns heads in North Carolina city

February 24, 2009

Pullen Memorial Baptist Church, which celebrates its 125th anniversary in 2009, is turning heads with a new eco-friendly building addition that eases overcrowding, allows for expanded missions and establishes a strong architectural presence along a prominent business and cultural thoroughfare in Raleigh, N.C.

---

Eye-catching, eco-friendly church structure turns heads in North Carolina city

February 24, 2009

Pullen Memorial Baptist Church, which celebrates its 125th anniversary in 2009, is turning heads with a new eco-friendly building addition that eases overcrowding, allows for expanded missions and establishes a strong architectural presence along a prominent business and cultural thoroughfare in Raleigh, N.C.

---

Upsurge of urban “creative class” poses challenges to evangelicals

February 24, 2009

If ever there were an archetypal hangout for what author and urban-studies theorist Richard Florida calls the “creative class,” Busboys and Poets at 14th and “V” Streets NW in the nation’s capital is it.

---

Upsurge of urban “creative class” poses challenges to evangelicals

February 24, 2009

If ever there were an archetypal hangout for what author and urban-studies theorist Richard Florida calls the “creative class,” Busboys and Poets at 14th and “V” Streets NW in the nation’s capital is it.

---

Survey: Crisis has some churches slashing budgets, more worried

February 24, 2009

Churches that aren't cutting their budgets due to the economic downturn are, by and large, taking measures to curb expenses, according to a survey the National Association of Church Business Administration has done of its members.

---

Survey: Crisis has some churches slashing budgets, more worried

February 24, 2009

Churches that aren't cutting their budgets due to the economic downturn are, by and large, taking measures to curb expenses, according to a survey the National Association of Church Business Administration has done of its members.

---

The challenge of the new urbanism

February 24, 2009

Urban churches are reaching out to the 'creative class' with edgy art and ancient traditions.

---

The challenge of the new urbanism

February 24, 2009

Urban churches are reaching out to the 'creative class' with edgy art and ancient traditions.