

African-Americans more religious than most others in United States

February 20, 2009

African-Americans surpass others in the United States in a range of expressions of faith, from praying more to attending religious services more frequently, a new report shows.

---

When it comes to religious fervor, it's a small world after all, research shows

February 20, 2009

Baptists in Tuscaloosa and Muslims in Tehran might not seem to have much in common, but Alabama and Iran agree on one thing—the importance of religion.

---

Comics creator attempts a new view on the Book of Genesis

February 20, 2009

To millions of Americans fascinated by comic-book superheroes, Bill Jemas is an industry legend who helped breathe life into Marvel Enterprises by pushing the wildly successful Ultimate Spider-Man series that rejuvenated the company. But for the last three years, Jemas has been translating Genesis for a “Freeware Bible.”

---

Faith Digest: Pope condemns Holocaust denial

February 20, 2009

In his first meeting with Jewish leaders since his controversial readmission of a Holocaust-denying bishop, Pope Benedict XVI condemned the “denial or minimization” of the Holocaust as “intolerable and altogether unacceptable.”

---

Scientific organizations, court: “intelligent design” isn’t science

February 20, 2009

Teaching the alternative to Darwinian evolution known as “intelligent design” in American public schools would require fundamental shifts in one or both of two things—the way scientists generally understand the basic philosophy of their profession, and/or the way the nation’s courts interpret the First Amendment.

---

Darwin controversial in life and death

February 20, 2009

Two hundred years after his birth on Feb. 12, 1809, British naturalist Charles Darwin remains controversial.

---

Darwin controversial in life and death

February 20, 2009

Two hundred years after his birth on Feb. 12, 1809, British naturalist Charles Darwin remains controversial.

---

Young-earth creationists value literal reading of Bible over human intellect

February 20, 2009

The philosophical evolution of Kurt Wise, a Harvard graduate who studied under paleontologist Stephen Jay Gould, has placed him as the leading proponent of young-earth creationism.

---

Intelligent design renews

debate between science and religion

February 20, 2009

William Dembski is at the center of the intelligent design movement, which has become the controversial rival to the teaching of evolution in schools.

---

Songwriter poses "What If We" challenge

February 20, 2009

For singer/songwriter Brandon Heath, "What If We" is more than just the title of his newest CD. It's also a challenge to Christians to put worship into motion and put their faith into action worldwide.

---

Faith Digest: Graham grandson tapped as Kennedy successor

February 20, 2009

Tullian Tchividjian, a grandson of Billy Graham has been nominated to succeed the late D. James Kennedy as pastor of Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

---

Evolution Sunday says dichotomy between faith and science is false

February 20, 2009

More than 900 congregations in the United States and elsewhere were signed up for Evolution Weekend 2009, an annual event that began with a letter-writing campaign in 2004.