

Explore the Bible Series for July 2: Live a life that seeks to meet God's standards

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/21/06

Explore the Bible Series for July 2

Live a life that seeks to meet God's standards

• Job 29:1-31:40

By James Adair

Baptist University of the Americas, San Antonio

Clarence Darrow was perhaps the most famous lawyer of the 20th century. He was associated with many of the highest-profile cases of his day, including the Leopold and Loeb case, the so-called Scopes Monkey Trial, the trial of labor leader Big Bill Haywood, and the sedition trial of World War I war protesters.

Twenty-two tons of sweet potatoes just one draw at Crossover Triad

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/14/06

A resident of an upscale neighborhood west of Winston-Salem, N.C., discusses spiritual concerns with Katherine Morris, 18, (left) and Allison Wiggins, 16, members of a youth group from First Baptist Church in Marion, Ark. (BP photo by Bob Carey)

Twenty-two tons of sweet potatoes just one draw at Crossover Triad

By Mike Creswell

N.C. Baptist State Convention

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Baptists threw muscles and prayers into Crossover Triad during the weekend prior to the Southern Baptist Convention annual meeting, using an international festival biker rally, rodeo, block parties, puppet shows and even sweet potatoes to get a hearing for the gospel.

New Orleans Seminary president thanks SBC for aiding recovery

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/13/06

New Orleans Seminary president thanks SBC for aiding recovery

By John Pierce

GREENSBORO, N.C.—“One moment in time can change everything,” New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary President Chuck Kelley said, reporting to the Southern Baptist Convention for the first time since Hurricane Katrina hit last year, forcing a campus evacuation and causing about $38 million damage to the seminary.

Burleson optimistic despite results of motion, bylaw change

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/16/06

Burleson optimistic despite results of motion, bylaw change

By Hannah Elliott

Associated Baptist Press

GREENSBORO, N.C. (ABP)—Although Southern Baptist blogger Wade

Burleson got no resolution to alleged abuses by trustees of the International Mission Board, he left the Southern Baptist Convention with a dogged sense of optimism that those problems would be resolved peacefully.

GuideStone investments positive, most medical premiums decrease

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/16/06

GuideStone investments positive, most medical premiums decrease

By Bill Webb

Word & Way

GREENSBORO, N.C.—GuideStone Financial Services President O.S. Hawkins reported to the Southern Baptist Convention annual meeting that the organization's investment funds are showing "tremendous success" and its insurance plans' premiums have decreased.

Cybercolumn by Brett Younger: To camp or not to camp

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/16/06

CYBER COLUMN: To camp or not to camp

By Brett Younger

It's that magical time of year when pastors ask, "Do I want to join extremely young people and only a few truly adult sponsors for five days without long pants?"

These are completely acceptable excuses for missing youth camp:

Statue of Billy Graham unveiled at convention

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/15/06

Statue of Billy Graham unveiled at convention

By Erin W. Tunnell

The Alabama Baptist

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Evangelist Billy Graham is larger than life for many Southern Baptists. Messengers and guests present at the closing session of the Southern Baptist Convention annual meeting learned that firsthand as they witnessed the unveiling of the 7-foot-tall statue of Graham.

Rankin: Don't let IMB controversy overshadow mission breakthroughs

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/15/06

Rankin: Don't let IMB controversy overshadow mission breakthroughs

By Grace Thornton

The Alabama Baptist

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Questions about trustee rights and closed-door meetings dominated the International Mission Board's report to the Southern Baptist Convention annual meeting.

Welch: SBC will baptize a million in a year

June 21, 2006

Posted: 6/15/06

Welch: SBC will baptize a million in a year

By Steve DeVane

Biblical Recorder

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Outgoing Southern Baptist Convention President Bobby Welch guaranteed Southern Baptists will meet his goal of baptizing a million people in a year. He just didn't say what year.

Texas teen wins Bible Drill competition

June 21, 2006