God is present even in his absence

- Job 22:1-28:28

By James Adair

Baptist University of the Americas, San Antonio

The cycle of speeches between Job and his friends comes to an end in this week's lesson. After this, we only hear from Job, the enigmatic figure Elihu and, finally, from God. There are some difficulties in figuring out who is saying what in these chapters, perhaps because of some ancient textual problems that affected the transmission of this section of the book.
