

Nash nominated as CBF missions coordinator

May 2, 2006

Posted: 5/02/06

Nash nominated as CBF missions coordinator

By Hannah Elliott

Associated Baptist Press

ATLANTA (ABP)—Robert Nash has received the nomination for the global missions coordinator position at the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. CBF council members will vote to approve the nomination at their annual meeting June 21 in Atlanta.

---

Playboy visits Baylor despite warnings

May 2, 2006

Posted: 5/02/06

Playboy visits Baylor despite warnings

By Hannah Elliott

Associated Baptist Press

WACO (ABP)—Playboy photographers held an open casting call April 18 at Baylor University, despite the university's discipline and suspension in recent years of students who posed in the magazine.

---

Expert explores myths of multihousing ministry

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

Expert explores myths of multihousing ministry

By George Henson

Staff Writer

AMARILLO—Churches interested in reaching multitudes who do not know Christ as Savior should engage in multihousing ministry but do it with their eyes open, said Jeff Parsons, multihousing director for Amarillo Area

Baptist Association.

---

RIGHT OR WRONG?

Responding to the poor

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

RIGHT OR WRONG?

Responding to the poor

The hurricanes along the Gulf of Mexico revealed a demographic identified as the “new poor.” What does that mean? What about the “old poor”? How do Christians respond to this theologically?

---

Reccord resigns as NAMB president after trustee

investigation

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

Reccord resigns as NAMB president after trustee investigation

By Greg Warner

Associated Baptist Press

ATLANTA (ABP)—After a trustee investigation produced a scathing report of numerous examples of poor management, Bob Reccord resigned as president of the North American Mission Board, effective immediately.

---

Proclamation for Immigration Reform

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/17/06

Proclamation for Immigration Reform

Hispanic Baptist Youth and Singles

Congreso Solemn Assembly, April 15, 2006

Whereas, our beloved United States of America, a nation of immigrants, is in the midst of the most dramatic immigration policy reform in the 21st century,

And whereas, 12 million undocumented immigrants are living and working in the United States today with 1.2 million undocumented immigrants living in Texas, And whereas, President George Bush has recommended that Congress considers comprehensive reform of U.S. Immigration Law,

And whereas, the Hispanic Baptist Convention of Texas and the Baptist General Convention of Texas passed resolutions in 2003 affirming Jesus' concern for ministry to the "alien" and "stranger" in the land and encouraged "proactive involvement of ministry activity among immigrants, documented and undocumented, through prayer and action,"

See Related Articles:

- Hispanic Baptist youth challenged to "get into Jesus"
- Hispanic Texas Baptist Congreso calls for immigration reform

---

Missionaries refuse to resign

under pressure

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

Missionaries refuse to resign under pressure

By Hannah Elliott

Associated Baptist Press

RICHMOND, Va. (ABP)—After receiving an April 15 ultimatum to resign or face termination, Wyman and Michelle Dobbs refused to resign as International Mission Board missionaries in Guinea, West Africa.

---

Resolution on Baptist dissent submitted

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

Resolution on Baptist dissent

submitted

By Robert Marus

Associated Baptist Press

ARLINGTON (ABP)—In a sign of the controversy threatening to engulf the Southern Baptist Convention’s upcoming annual meeting, a Texas pastor has formally submitted a resolution that accuses SBC leaders of trying to “silence principled dissent.”

---

IMB isolationism contrary to missions trend, experts say

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

IMB isolationism contrary to missions trend, experts say

By Ken Camp

Managing Editor

DALLAS—At a time when collaboration and cooperation characterize Christian missions, the Southern Baptist International Mission Board appears to be moving toward isolation and exclusion, some veteran missionaries and missiologists insist.

---

BJC chief refutes ‘top 10 lies’ about church & state

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

BJC chief refutes ‘top 10 lies’ about church & state

By Marv Knox

Editor

ABILENE—Americans are besieged by lies about the relationship of church and state, Brent Walker insisted during the Maston Christian Ethics Lectures at Hardin-Simmons University’s Logsdon School of Theology, April 10-11.

---

Five commandments for religious Americans in political life

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

Five commandments for religious Americans in political life

ABILENE—Religious Americans should follow five commandments as they “enter the fray of political life,” Baptist Joint Committee Executive Director Brent Walker advised.

Walker presented his commandments as part of the Maston Christian Ethics Lectures at Hardin-Simmons University’s Logsdon School of Theology.

The commandments are:

---

ETBU students build in Laredo

May 2, 2006

Posted: 4/28/06

East Texas
Baptist University

student Matt Gillum of Aledo (left) works on a Habitat for Humanity project in Laredo during ETBU's spring break.
Other ETBU students served in Chicago and in Monterrey,
Mexico. East
Texas
Baptist University student Hannah
Parker of Atlanta,
Texas, (right) gives up her spring break to help a Habitat for Humanity
Project in Laredo.