Guard your actions lest they promote conflict

• Romans 14:13-23

By Trey Turner

Canyon Creek Baptist Church, Temple

In our church, we are going through a process of discovering spiritual gifts, personal style and the passions that make up each believer. This is an important process to know how God wants us to serve in and through the church. Part of understanding these things is to show how we do not belong to ourselves.

RIGHT OR WRONG?

Table manners

I work with a company that does quite a bit of business with clients through lunches and dinners. I realized I may not be at the top of the game on table manners. But, really, does etiquette have anything to do with the way I do my work?

Munich explores themes of vengeance & forgiveness

By Susan Edwards

Special to the Baptist Standard

Horribly graphic and violent, disturbing, challenging and even frightening, Munich explores themes imbedded in the factual Palestinian/Israeli conflict, particularly in the context of the massacre of Israeli athletes at the 1972 Munich Olympics.
