

After 80 years, town still known for ‘Monkey Trial’

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

Tom Davis gives a tour of the museum in the basement of the Rhea County Courthouse dedicated to the Scopes
"Monkey Trial." Eighty years ago, media coverage of the trial branded Dayton, Tenn., a backwater haven of the Bible Belt, where ignorant Christians gave blind faith precedence over scientific discovery.
(Photos by Michael Clancy/RNS)

After 80 years, town still known for 'Monkey Trial'

By Amy Green

Religion News Service

DAYTON, Tenn. (RNS)-Eighty years ago, media coverage of the Scopes "Monkey Trial" branded this town a backwater haven of the Bible Belt, a place where ignorant Christians gave blind faith precedence over scientific discovery.

Strickland recognized as advocate for children

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

Strickland recognized as advocate for children

By John Hall

Texas Baptist Communications

DALLAS-The Texas Conference of Churches and Texans Care for Children recently recognized Baptist General Convention of Texas Christian Life

Commission Director Phil Strickland for his years of advocating for the betterment of children's lives.

Teens offer needy families reason to give thanks

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

Teens offer needy families reason to give thanks

By Miranda Bradley

Texas Baptist Children's Home

ROUND ROCK-Teenagers who have discovered hope through a Texas Baptist Children's Home program offered needy families a reason to give thanks.

Texas Tidbits

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

Texas Tidbits

DBU honors two. Dallas Baptist University honored Michael Stuart, a Mesquite dentist, church musician and member of First Baptist Church in Sunnyvale, as 2005 Distinguished Alumnus at its homecoming alumni banquet. Stuart, who completed his undergraduate studies at DBU in 1974, went on to earn a master's degree in church music from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and his doctorate from the Baylor College of Dentistry. His wife, Kathy, is a retired educator and principal. The Stuarts have two daughters and three grandchildren. DBU also honored Jamie Lash, business professor and director of student development, with its 2005 Honorary Alumnus award. Before joining the DBU faculty in 1988, Lash taught at Baylor University. In addition to his responsibilities on the DBU campus, Lash is a frequent speaker at churches and retreats throughout the United States. For six years, he maintained a radio ministry in Washington, D.C., and Dallas. He and his wife, Marcy, live in Grand Prairie and have three children.

ETBU education students form organization. East Texas Baptist University education students have formed a new campus organization—the Future Educators of the World. Newly elected officers are President Sara Thompson, a junior from Marshall; Vice President Lauren Youngblood, a junior from Whitehouse; and Secretary Amy DuBose, a senior from Overton. Brian Nichols, dean of the ETBU School of Education, and Carolyn Dierksen, associate professor of teacher education, will serve as faculty sponsors.

Information desired on evangelist. The archivist at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is seeking information about 20th century Texas Baptist evangelist B.B. Crimm. Crimm lived in Marshall and died in 1950. Anyone who has information about Crimm, including any stories regarding his life and ministry, can contact Jim Lutzweiler at 101 Thornwood Rd., Jamestown, N.C. 27282 or call (919) 761-2249 or (336) 686-2043.

FDA oversight of cigarettes urged

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

FDA oversight of cigarettes urged

By Bruce Taylor Seeman

Religion News Service

WASHINGTON (RNS)—After being indicted by a grand jury and bounced from his leadership post in Congress, Rep. Tom DeLay, R-Sugar Land, has another distraction—interfaith groups pressuring him to drop his opposition to Food and Drug Administration oversight of cigarette sales, which health experts say could save thousands of American lives.

TOGETHER: Make a bigger difference in Texas

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

TOGETHER: Make a bigger difference in Texas

The latest Texas Almanac came as a birthday present from my brother this past week. This is the sesquicentennial edition—for the first time printed in color! And full of facts.

It documents how Baptists have grown in Texas. There are 4.5 million of us, along with 4.4 million Catholics and 4 million aligned with other religious groups.

But the largest group of all is the “unclaimed.” They are “nonadherents to religion.” In 1990, there were 5.5 million, and now there are 8 million—an increase of almost 50 percent! If these 8 million people constituted one state, it would be the 11th-most-populated state in the nation.

Wave of hope sweeps Thailand in months after tsunami

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

Wave of hope sweeps Thailand in months after tsunami

Children play in their "front yards" after the tide comes in to a "Sea Gypsy" village in southern Thailand.
Already poor, the village faced starvation when the tsunami of 2004 destroyed their fishing boats.
Missionary
Mark
Caldwell and local Christians brought help and the love of Christ.
(Photo courtesy of IMB)

By Erich Bridges

International Mission Board

Sunset paints a glorious reddish glow across the placid water lapping the beach at Khao Lak, Thailand. The view calms the mind, quiets the heart and and packs in the tourists at posh resorts.

Weekend Fest rocks

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

Weekend Fest rocks

About 600 teenagers and others joined in Weekend Fest, a Christian concert featuring Tree63 prior to the Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting in Austin. Participants gave more than $400 for mission work through Baptist Student Ministries around the state, and numerous young people made decisions for Christ. The concert also featured several prizes. Woodlawn Baptist Church and Teri Road Baptist Church in Austin each won $500 to help pay for youth mission trips. Melanie Jaramillo of Primera Iglesia Bautista in Austin won a laptop computer, and Belle Ramey, a youth worker at Crestview Baptist Church in Georgetown, won a paid trip to next year's BGCT annual meeting in Dallas.

News of religion, faith, missions, Bible study and Christian ministry among Texas Baptist churches, in the BGCT, the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) and around the world.

Storylist for 11/21/05 issue

December 2, 2005

Storylist for week of 11/21/05

GO TO SECTIONS:

- Around Texas
- Baptists
- Faith In Action
- Departments
- Opinion
- Bible Study

- Accident changed focus of ETBU athlete Huckaby
- Wayland worldwide recruiting effort nets students from Dubai
- Tornadoes disrupt Tennessee Baptist meeting
- Alabama Baptists urged to lead in racial harmony
- Missionary couple helping to reach remote Lencas in Honduras
- Kentucky Baptists approve new relationship with college
- Tennessee university to elect own trustees

Articles from our 11/21/05 issue:

- One family, one mission

BGCT Annual Meeting

- Time to 'show up, pay up & speak up,' Bell insists
- Resolution reaffirms biblical sexual values but not boycotts
- Restructured BGCT designed to offer one-stop shop for Texas
- Reyes urges Texas Baptists to share power, resources
- Missions Foundation honors four for missions contributions
- BWA leader brings more than fraternal greetings to BGCT
- Opportunity knocks during CityReach
- Prophetic voice absent but still heard at TBC event
- Where Have All the Prophets Gone? by Phil Strickland
- Hispanic Baptists celebrate family & mission
- Work together to accomplish mission, Nguyen urges BGCT

- Health Foundation names Elston president
- Around the State
- On the Move
- Texas Tidbits

Previously Posted

- BGCT officer elections reflect convention's diversity
- BGCT approves sweeping change in governance structure
- WMU board cancels Texas Leadership Conference
- Texas WMU celebrates 125 years of missions service
- Historic Texas Baptist church 'still alive and growing,' pastor reports
- Ministers, layman honored at banquet
- Varied evangelism methods can be effective, Shuffield says
- Worship should unify, not divide, educator insists
- Teens illustrate what they need spiritually
- BGCT mission and heritage 'not for sale,' Wade insists
- Young pastors learn from elders

- At long last, Georgians vote to cast out Mercer
- Florida signs for marriage
- Louisiana veers from recent trends
- North Carolina Baptists still may give to Fellowship
- Baptist Briefs

Previously Posted

- Rogers kept SBC's steering wheel turned to the right

- Volunteer uses spiritual gifts in prison

- Thanksgiving observances reflect political agendas
- Court declines to hear 'In God We Trust' case
- Gender testing raises ethical questions
- Tiny ceramic shard yields gigantic archaeological find

- Cartoon
- Classified Ads

- Texas Baptist Forum

- Around the State

- On the Move

- EDITORIAL: Texas & the 21st-century Pentecost

- DOWN HOME: Do you give thanks for music's aroma

- 2nd Opinion: Things I learned as a BGCT officer

- TOGETHER: Texas Baptists have much work to do

- Right or Wrong? Stem Cells \(Again\)

- Texas Baptist Forum

- Cyber Column by Jeanie Miley: God is at work

- BaptistWay Bible Series for Nov. 20: Wasted potential is a danger all face

- Family Bible Series for Nov. 20: Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom

- Explore the Bible Series for Nov. 20: When evil closes in, remember God's promises

- BaptistWay Bible Series for Nov. 27: Everything is to be subjugated to God's will
- Family Bible Series for Nov. 27: Submission to the will of God is an imperative
- Explore the Bible Series for Nov. 27: Circumstances can't defeat God's purposes

See articles from previous issue 11/14/05 here.

New court appointee might affect upcoming abortion cases

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

New court appointee might affect upcoming abortion cases

By Robert Marus

ABP Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON (ABP)—As the Supreme Court took up its first major abortion case in five years Nov. 30, attention focused on the body's shifting membership and what that might mean for abortion rights in the future.

Cybercolumn by Brett Younger: The Great American Christmas Letter

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

Print, cut along the dotted line, and place on your refrigerator.

CYBER COLUMN:

The Great American Christmas Letter

By Brett Younger

Dear Friends, Family & Many Readers of the Baptist Standard Whom I've Never Met,

My family is not the kind that writes Christmas letters, but each year I read so many heart-warming epistles from wonderful families that I feel inspired. I have to begin by admitting that none of us are learning to dance, quilt or speak French. I'm sorry to say that we are not earning belts of any color in Tae Kwon Do. I'm embarrassed to confess that we have no new houses, cars, pets or children (and have no desire for any of these). Maybe we should have gone to Disneyworld, but we had a good year.

Right or Wrong? Spare the rod?

December 2, 2005

Posted: 12/02/05

Right or Wrong? Spare the rod?

My 5-year-old tends to act out, even in church. One lady, old enough to be my grandmother, told me, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." What does that mean?