

Bloggng pastor lauded for defending fired female seminary professor

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/21/07

Bloggng pastor lauded for defending fired female seminary professor

By John Pierce

Baptists Today

MINNEAPOLIS (ABP)—One of Southern Baptists' most outspoken pastors has been recognized for his defense of women—even though he does not believe women should serve as pastors.

Wade Burleson, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Enid, Okla., and former president of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, recently received the Priscilla and Aquila Award from Christians for Biblical Equality.

BaptistWay Bible Series for December 30: Jesus and hopeless situations

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/21/07

BaptistWay Bible Series for December 30

Jesus and hopeless situations

- Mark 4:35-5:43

By Andrew Daugherty

Board voting on Daehnert as interim executive director

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/20/07

Board voting on Daehnert

as interim executive director

By Ken Camp

Managing Editor

Jan Daehnert, a retired Baptist Building employee who led the state convention's intentional interim pastor program several years, has been recommended as interim executive director for the Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board.

Board directors are casting e-mail ballots beginning today. If elected, Daehnert will start work in January, meeting with Executive Board staff. He will begin service as interim executive director when Charles Wade retires Jan. 31 and will continue in that role until a new executive director assumes duties.

Jan Daehnert

Executive director interim candidate to be announced

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/19/07

Executive director interim candidate to be announced

Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board directors will be polled Thursday afternoon, Dec. 20, by e-mail ballot regarding a prospective interim executive director. The Baptist Standard has interviewed the candidate and will post an article about his nomination at 1 p.m. on Dec. 20, after board members have received information about the nominee.

The board received the required three-day notice Dec. 17, informing them a candidate would be nominated Dec. 20 and that they would vote by e-mail.

Charles Wade retires as executive director Jan. 31.

Bible Studies for Life Series for December 30: Bowing before the Savior

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/18/07

Bible Studies for Life Series for December 30

Bowing before the Savior

- Matthew 2:1-12

By Steve Dominy

Board to vote on interim executive director

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/18/07

Board to vote on interim executive director

By John Hall

Texas Baptist Communications

The Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board will vote later this week on a nominee for interim executive director.

BGCT Executive Board directors learned Dec. 17 they would receive background information on a candidate for interim executive director, as well as information about how the e-mail balloting would take place. Voting begins Dec. 20 and will continue until a decision is made.

TBM seeks coats for children in North Korea

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/14/07

TBM seeks coats for children in North Korea

By Ken Camp

Managing Editor

Global Resource Services will send 10 containers filled with medical supplies to 10 rural hospitals in North Korea soon, in celebration of the 10th anniversary of its humanitarian work there. And Texas Baptist Men wants to include 10,000 winter coats for children with the shipments.

John LaNoue of Lindale, whose initial work in North Korea gave birth to Texas Baptist Men's partnership with Global Resource Services there 10 years ago, recently returned from another trip to North Korea with TBM volunteer Jim Pinkston of Edgewood.

Fair-trade items offer Christmas gifts with a conscience

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/14/07

Fair-trade items offer Christmas gifts with a conscience

By Hannah Elliott

Associated Baptist Press

NEW YORK (ABP)—What's the perfect revenge for the flannel-lined hot-water bottle Aunt Sharon gave you last year? Or the Michael Bolton CD from your brother-in-law?

Maybe a toilet. Or an ox. A bag of seeds would work, for that matter.

Happy New Year? For Christians it began with Advent

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/14/07

For some Christians, following a calendar common to Christ's followers through the centuries rather than one dictated by greeting-card companies constitutes an act of radical, counter-cultural discipleship.

Happy New Year? For Christians it began with Advent

By Jennifer Harris

Missouri Word & Way

When does the New Year begin? For Christians observing the church calendar, the new year began Dec. 2, with the start of the Advent season.

The liturgical church year is an “or-derly way to look at the full scope of Christ-ian themes in a year-long fashion,” said John Baker, pastor of First Baptist Church in Columbia, Mo.

Missouri Baptist rift widens when leaders restrict funding for church starts

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/17/07

Missouri Baptist rift widens when leaders restrict funding for church starts

By Vicki Brown

Associated Baptist Press

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (ABP)—A decision by Missouri Baptist Convention leaders to cut off funding for certain new church starts has set off a firestorm of protest and further widened a rift among conservative Baptists in the state.

Missouri Baptist Convention Executive Board members approved a measure at their December meeting to withdraw funding and other assistance to church plants affiliated with the Acts 29 Network. The regularly scheduled board meeting was truncated due to an impending ice storm.

Bible Studies for Life Series for December 23: Celebrating the Savior's Birth

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/13/07

Bible Studies for Life Series for December 23

Celebrating the Savior's Birth

- Luke 2:1-20

By Steve Dominy

Christian motorcyclists and mudders bring Christmas cheer in Beaumont

December 21, 2007

Posted: 12/14/07

Kristin
Bumbera, 20, who finished the season second in points,
racing ASA
Late Models at Houston
Motor
Sports
Park, visits
the Children's Village with younger brother
Boyd, 9,
who also races.

Christian motorcyclists and mudders bring Christmas cheer in Beaumont

By Analiz González

Buckner International

EAUMONT—Santa Claus on a fire truck led a parade of bikers, 4X4s and hot rods to a crowd of waiting children in front of Buckner Children's Village.

The crowd from the residential children's home and the Buckner foster care program rode the vehicles, voted for their favorites and then went mudding on Buckner property hosed down by the fire department with 30,000 gallons of water.

Advent: Red Letter Days

- Happy New Year? For Christians it began with Advent
 - Christian motorcyclists and mudders bring Christmas cheer in Beaumont
- Churches push Advent Conspiracy to teach real giving
- Fair-trade items offer Christmas gifts with a conscience
 - Christmas brighter for children of military families, thanks to UMHB student project
- For some, happy holidays means no gifts
 - International students share Christmas joy
- Who were those "wise men from the East" bearing gifts?
- 2nd Opinion: The two sides of advent
 - What if Christmas had not come?
 - Finding the "spirit of Christmas"