

Obituary: Tomi Jean Lenamon

January 10, 2020

Tomi Jean Anderson Lenamon, a member of Travis Avenue Baptist Church in Fort Worth for 58 years, died Jan 7. She was 85

International evangelist met Christ in a Texas prison

January 10, 2020

Rick Vasquez, now a pastor and evangelist, came to faith in Christ in 1994 after hearing God's voice in his Texas prison cell while listening to a heavy metal song.

Truett theologian offers guidelines for social media use

January 10, 2020

Angela Gorrell, assistant professor of practical theology at Truett Theological Seminary, believes social media spaces can be instruments of God's unconditional love—but also sources of anxiety, jealousy and depression.

Rumors linking Soros to Evangelical Immigration Table disputed

January 10, 2020

Persistent rumors linking the Evangelical Immigration Table and Southern Baptists' Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission to progressive billionaire George Soros prompted Baptist Press to publish an "explainer" disputing those claims.

Obituary: Daniel John Yeary

January 10, 2020

Daniel John Yeary, longtime Baptist minister, died Jan. 4 in Houston. He was 81.

South Texas: Broken heart and border blessings

January 10, 2020

Student Mission Blog: I came down here to the Texas/Mexico border thinking I wouldn't be able to relate in any way to the people. But God knew why I was placed here.

Explore the Bible: Honored

January 10, 2020

The Explore the Bible lesson for Jan. 26 focuses on Deuteronomy 4:1-9.

Review: What If ... God Has Other Plans?

January 10, 2020

Alice Thomas reviews "What If ... God Has Other Plans?" by Charles Swindoll.

Faith leaders seek to combat stigma of mental illness

January 10, 2020

Historically, faith traditions often have been reluctant to talk about mental health and suicide. That is changing.

On the Move: Mendez

January 10, 2020

Staff change noted for Calvary Baptist Church in Abilene.

Around the State: Waxahachie choir performs at Carnegie Hall

January 10, 2020

Choral musicians from First Baptist Church in Waxahachie performed at Carnegie Hall, presenting the premiere of "Sing Christmas!" Ferrell Foster, director of ethics and justice with the Texas Baptist Christian Life

Commission, will begin work soon with Prosper Waco.

Connect360: The Miraculous Feeding

January 10, 2020

Lesson 8 in the BaptistWay Press Connect360 unit “Miracles: The Transforming Power of Jesus” focuses on Matthew 14:14-21.