

Texas Baptists seek to raise $1 million on Mother's Day to help hungry

April 9, 2013

Texas Baptists plan to take a significant step on Mother's Day to provide meals to children in need.

Hillman proposed for BGCT first vice president

April 9, 2013

Kathy Hillman, a leader in several spheres of Texas Baptist life, will be nominated for first vice president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas during the BGCT annual meeting this summer.

Composer and conductor Buryl

Red dies

April 9, 2013

Buryl Red, a conductor, producer and arranger known around the world as musical director of The CenturyMen and composer of the 1972 classic Celebrate Life, died April 1 after a battle with cancer.

Rincones named Hispanic convention executive director

April 9, 2013

The Hispanic Baptist Convention of Texas named Jesse Rincones of Lubbock as its first executive director.

Baptist Leader Duke McCall dies

April 9, 2013

Duke McCall, a denominational leader known by Baptists worldwide for a ministry that spanned four decades, died April 2 at age 98.

Texas Hunger Initiative receives $3.5 million state contract

April 9, 2013

A $3.5 million annual contract from the Texas Health and Human Services Commission will enable the Texas Hunger Initiative to develop a public-private partnership to expand low-income families' access to food and health care.

Mission Arlington: Never give up on anybody

April 9, 2013

STUDENT MISSIONS BLOG: As I think about my time as a semester missionary at Mission Arlington, I am reminded of one simple truth: Nobody is beyond redemption.

East Asia: The value of fellowship

April 9, 2013

STUDENT MISSIONS BLOG: I have been in East Asia more than four months now, and one thing that I really miss a lot is big group fellowship. I miss having a consistent large weekly meeting where I get to see friends and family.

East Asia: Better than expected

April 9, 2013

STUDENT MISSIONS BLOG: A few days before Christmas, I had the opportunity to host a Christmas party here in East Asia.

Four months invested

April 9, 2013

STUDENT MISSIONS BLOG: As I leave the city where I've served for four months, I can't help but be excited to return home with my family and friends. But it also saddens me to leave the life I have semi-built here in East Asia and the relationships I have formed.

Cost of discipleship

April 9, 2013

STUDENT MISSIONS BLOG: I have seen God work in a very different way in the lives of the students—differently than I have ever seen or experienced before.

Frustration

April 9, 2013

For a couple of weeks, I've been having long conversations with a friend of mine who is a Buddhist.