

Chris Johnson: A Serious Search | Baptists Preaching

October 3, 2018

Baptists Preaching is a new column from the Baptist Standard. It is not an effort to advance any one theology or style but to present what a collection of Baptists considers a word from God. Likewise, Baptists Preaching offers a repository of Baptist preaching for future study and research. To recommend a sermon to be featured in Baptists Preaching, please contact eric.black@baptiststandard.com.

Chris Johnson: A Serious Search (Jeremiah 29:10-14)

Chris Johnson

Chris Johnson, co-pastor of First Baptist Church in San Antonio, Texas, contrasts a six-second cursory search to a serious, all-out search for God when facing difficult days. He reminds us God has a long view, seeing decades ahead and calling us to go beyond cursory searches guided by self-centeredness to faithful obedience of God.

This sermon was delivered during the morning worship service at First Baptist Church in San Antonio on July 15, 2018 as part of the Rescue and Redemption Summer Sermon Series.

Audio of this sermon is available here.

The manuscript of this sermon is available here.