

Darin Wood: I Am Forgiven and Redeemed

May 26, 2021

Baptists Preaching is a column from the Baptist Standard. It is not an effort to advance any one theology or style but to present what a collection of Baptists considers a word from God. Likewise, Baptists Preaching offers a repository of Baptist preaching for future study and research. To recommend a sermon to be featured in Baptists Preaching, please contact eric.black@baptiststandard.com.

Darin Wood: I Am Forgiven and Redeemed (Romans 5:6-8)

Darin Wood, pastor of First Baptist Church in Midland, Texas, expressed disappointment in Christians identifying themselves in ways outside Christ, citing this as the reason for his sermon series on identity. He defined forgiveness and redemption, noting they are foundational to a Christian's identity.

Forgiveness is release from debt that must be received to be effectual and is to be offered to others. Redemption is a change of ownership that promises a great future. Both are gifts of grace available in and because of Jesus.

This sermon was delivered on Sunday, Jan. 31, 2021, during the morning worship services of First Baptist Church in Midland as part of a series titled "Who Am I?"