

Dr. Felisi Sorgwe: Unmasking Prejudice

November 3, 2020

Baptists Preaching is a column from the Baptist Standard. It is not an effort to advance any one theology or style but to present what a collection of Baptists considers a word from God. Likewise, Baptists Preaching offers a repository of Baptist preaching for future study and research. To recommend a sermon to be featured in Baptists Preaching, please contact eric.black@baptiststandard.com.

Dr. Felisi Sorgwe: Unmasking Prejudice (Acts 10)

Dr. Felisi Sorgwe, is associate professor of theology at Houston Baptist University and pastor of Maranatha International Church in Houston. Sorgwe speaks directly to the relationship between prejudice and justice. Prejudice creates a “line of demarcation” for the distribution of justice between “us and them.”

Acts 10 records the story of Peter’s prejudice against people like Cornelius. Cornelius had a different problem that wouldn’t be helped by Peter’s prejudice. Acts 10 tells how God intervened to unwrap a long tradition of prejudice.

This sermon was delivered during the convocation of Houston Baptist University on Sept. 30, 2020. A sermon script is available here.