

Rev. Rosalind Spencer: The Unforgiving Servant

August 26, 2020

Baptists Preaching is a column from the Baptist Standard. It is not an effort to advance any one theology or style but to present what a collection of Baptists considers a word from God. Likewise, Baptists Preaching offers a repository of Baptist preaching for future study and research. To recommend a sermon to be featured in Baptists Preaching, please contact eric.black@baptiststandard.com.

Rev. Rosalind Spencer: The Unforgiving Servant (Matthew 18:23-34)

Rev. Rosalind Spencer, children's pastor at Westside Baptist Church in Lewisville, Texas, continues the story she began teaching the previous week. She reads the parable about the unforgiving servant recorded in Matthew 18:23-34. Spencer reminds her hearers how hard forgiveness can be. She also reminds them sin hides in secrecy and must be acknowledged to be overcome.

Spencer offers three points for dealing with sin in our relationships. First, we need to give Jesus his rightful place as Lord of our lives. Second, we need to be prepared for the reality others will sin against us. Third, we need to forgive those who sin against us. Matthew 18:15-17 provides guidance for dealing with this kind of sin.

This sermon was delivered online on July 5, 2020, as part of a parable series for children's church at Westside Baptist Church in Lewisville.