

Celebrating Churches: Church Without Walls revival

March 20, 2026

The Church Without Walls is engaged in a four-week Navigating Faith & Life Revival on Wednesday evenings at the church's Eldridge Campus.

Rising antisemitism abroad becoming dangerous for Jews

March 20, 2026

Growing trends of antisemitism abroad have made it increasingly dangerous for Jews to reveal their identity publicly, says USCIRF report.

Can Bethlehem's Christians survive another Easter?

March 20, 2026

The Iran war could be the final blow to Bethlehem's tourism industry—and to the already-dwindling Christian population as well.

Texas Baptists announce WatersEdge partnership

March 20, 2026

Texas Baptists formed a new partnership with WatersEdge, a nonprofit Christian financial services organization offering accounting and payroll services.

Trump administration fights TX, FL challenges to abortion pill

March 20, 2026

The Justice Department asked a Texas federal district court on March 13 to either stay or dismiss Florida and Texas challenges to mifepristone.

Around the State: Bounce awarded by Texas governor

March 20, 2026

Texas Baptists' Bounce ministry received the Rebuild Texas Disaster Impact Award, recognizing the ministry's excellence in meeting community needs.

West Bank persecution not systematic, says Messianic Jew

March 20, 2026

The decline of Christians in the Holy Land reflects regional instability more than systematic Israeli persecution, according to pastor Stuart Rothberg.

Parents, Islamic schools sue over Texas voucher program

March 20, 2026

Another Muslim parent whose children's school was allegedly excluded from TEFA filed a lawsuit against Texas state officials over religious discrimination.

On the Move: Berry, Burleson

March 20, 2026

Pastoral changes noted for churches in Cotton Center and Plano.

John Perkins, civil rights leader and Bible teacher, dies at 95

March 20, 2026

John Perkins, influential Baptist author, teacher, civil rights activist and veteran, and founder of various ministries, died Mar. 13. He was 95.

Over 100 Latino Christians

reprove Trump adviser's reach

March 20, 2026

Latino Christian leaders signed a letter, prompted by concerns about the Trump administration's immigration policies.

Arab Baptist seminary sheltering Christians and others

March 20, 2026

Arab Baptist Theological Seminary near Beirut is providing shelter to Christians and others fleeing the war zone, offering shelter, food, and gospel encouragement.