

Around the State: ETBU students return from Beach Reach

April 17, 2015

Thirty-nine East Texas Baptist University students joined the Beach Reach effort to evangelize college students for Christ during spring break. In total, 1,060 volunteers engaged in servant evangelism while providing 27,396 van rides and serving 21,000 pancakes during the three weeks of ministry.

Jim Angle, former chief national correspondent for AngleFox News Channel, will be the guest speaker for Howard Payne University's Guy D. Newman Honors Academy as it celebrates the 50th anniversary of its first graduating class. The free event will be held April 25 from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the university's Mims Auditorium. For more information, click here.

Congreso, a gathering of Hispanic youth for worship and training in evangelism and discipleship, will be April 24-25 at Baylor University in Waco with the theme "Invincible." Jesse Rincones, pastor of Alliance Church in Lubbock, and Jason Paredes, co-pastor of Fielder Church in Arlington, will speak. Music will be provided by Creation's Anthem, Digital Age and Trip Lee.

Anniversaries

Marcelo Garcia, 15th, as pastor of Primera Iglesia Bautista in Beeville, April 15.

Larry Martin, fifth, as pastor of Cadiz Baptist Church in George West, April 15.