

Abuse of Faith: Investigation reveals 700 victims

February 11, 2019

In the last 20 years, about 380 ministers and volunteers in Southern Baptist churches sexually abused more than 700 people, according to a comprehensive investigative report by the Houston Chronicle and the San Antonio Express-News. More of the offenders who pleaded guilty or were convicted of sexual offenses were from Texas than from any other state, the newspapers reported.

To read the article in the Houston Chronicle, click here.

To search the database, click here.