

CBF launches task force on clergy sexual misconduct

June 22, 2016

The task force—formed in memory of Diana Garland, founding dean of the Baylor School of Social Work that now bears her name—will focus on prevention of clergy sexual misconduct, creating and distributing misconduct policies, education and after-care for survivors of clergy sexual misconduct.

Read it at Baptist News Global.

Other articles about the 2016 CBF general assembly:

Donors pledge \$8.5 million as CBF launches \$12 million endowment campaign

Soul freedom is a God-breathed gift to all humankind, BJC's Walker tells Cooperative Baptists

CBF commissions largest and most diverse group of church starters to date

Confront all forms of oppression and embrace the full gospel, New Baptist Covenant speakers urge

Hearing and preaching the gospel is hard work, noted preacher tells Cooperative Baptists

Bass celebrates CBF's 25th anniversary, expresses gratefulness for giftedness of Cooperative Baptists

Cooperation and ethic of love are keys to CBF's future, incoming CBF

Moderator says