

District Court issues decisions for seminary and Patterson

December 4, 2025

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary remains dismissed from claims of defamation in a case involving the school and its former president, Paige Patterson, with the latter being allowed to file again for summary judgment, a U.S District Court decided.

Motions to unseat Arlington church ruled out of order

December 4, 2025

Three motions at the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention annual meeting to disallow messengers from Fielder Church in Arlington because of the church's stance on women in pastoral roles were ruled out of order.

Florida pastor Willy Rice

nominee for SBC president

December 4, 2025

Florida pastor Willy Rice announced his intentions to be nominated for Southern Baptist Convention president at the 2026 SBC annual meeting in Orlando.

Morris Chapman, longtime SBC leader, dead at 84

December 4, 2025

Morris H. Chapman, former pastor, former Southern Baptist Convention president, former SBC Executive Committee president and champion of the Cooperative Program, died Oct. 20, at age 84.

Akin announces retirement from Southeastern Seminary

December 4, 2025

Daniel Akin, president of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, announced to students gathered for a chapel service on Oct. 14 his plans to retire next summer.

Voddie Baucham Jr. dies at 56

December 4, 2025

Voddie Baucham Jr., a conservative Black pastor, author and seminary leader heroic to some and controversial to others, has died at 56.

SBC Executive Committee takes up messenger motions

December 4, 2025

Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee members addressed referrals from messengers to the 2025 SBC annual meeting at their Sept. 22-23 meeting.

Executive Committee declines to sue Johnny Hunt

December 4, 2025

The Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee at their Sept.23 meeting weighed the potential merits and risks of filing countersuits in cases involving what it considers fraudulent claims of responsibility.

Sills drops lawsuit against Jennifer Lyell estate

December 4, 2025

Michael David Sills and his wife Mary no longer are seeking damages against the estate of the late Jennifer Lyell in a lawsuit stemming from Lyell's accusation of sexual abuse against Sills.

Ezell explains vision behind NAMB church planting

December 4, 2025

Terminology goes a long way in perception. It's difficult to get a clear picture if words have different meanings on different sides of a conversation.

ERLC breaks ties with the Evangelical Immigration Table

December 4, 2025

The Southern Baptist Convention's public policy agency will go its own way on immigration policy, breaking ties with a coalition of other evangelical Christian bodies focused on the issue.

Gary Hollingsworth named ERLC interim president

December 4, 2025

Retired South Carolina Baptist state convention leader and longtime pastor Gary Hollingsworth has been selected as interim president of the Southern Baptist Convention's Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission, effective Oct. 1.