

GuideStone will do business with Global Methodists

January 10, 2024

Southern Baptists do not believe women can be pastors or churches should baptize infants. But that won't stop them from doing business with non-Baptist churches that disagree.

Search team has SBC Executive Committee CEO candidate

January 10, 2024

The SBC Executive Committee presidential search team plans to announce its candidate to the public Feb. 18. The team announced Jan. 8 it will present the candidate to the Feb. 19 Executive Committee meeting in Nashville.

Addressing abuse requires churches to be prepared

January 10, 2024

A church's response to an allegation of abuse begins with a call to Child Protective Services. From there, it's important not only to have an active partnership with civil authorities in addressing the case, but also to set up long-term care for survivors, experts say.

Evangelist Junior Hill dies at age 87

January 10, 2024

Junior Hill, a sought-after evangelist among Southern Baptists for more than 50 years, died Jan. 3 at his home in Hartselle, Ala. He was 87.

Gym church members work out their faith

January 10, 2024

A gym may seem like an unorthodox location for a church, but that's what it is—a growing body of believers and seekers who gather to worship and hear the Bible preached each week.

SBC settles abuse lawsuit against Paul Pressler

January 10, 2024

The Southern Baptist Convention has settled a sexual abuse lawsuit against Paul Pressler, who had been accused of allegedly molesting young men for decades.

Accused of withholding abuse reports from congregation

January 10, 2024

Facing accusations its leaders withheld information about reports of sexual abuse, Pastor Steven Smith of Immanuel Baptist Church in Little Rock issued a statement saying, “Nothing is more important than keeping our members and children safe.”

Soldiers profess faith in Christ at Living Christmas Tree

January 10, 2024

When First Baptist Church in Lawton, Okla., sensed God's leading to add a second weekend to its Living Christmas Tree, Senior Pastor Mike Keahbone didn't realize what was in store.

Myanmar Baptist fellowship sends missionaries

January 10, 2024

Six representatives of the Myanmar Baptist Churches USA fellowship traveled from Maryland to Virginia to support one couple who represents a historic milestone for the Southern Baptist Convention.

IMB Project 3000 explorers seek unreached people groups

January 10, 2024

International Mission Board missionaries are going the extra mile—quite often literally—to find unreached people groups.

TBM tops 100,000 meals prepared in Israel

January 10, 2024

A third Texas Baptist Men volunteer team is serving meals in Israel and doing so at remote locations. Since the Oct. 7 Hamas attack and the beginning of the war, TBM and Israeli volunteers have served more than 100,000 meals using equipment designed by TBM.

TBM volunteers witness weight of war on Israeli civilians

January 10, 2024

“There’s an obvious weight of war that sits over the country all the time,” said Doug Hall, a TBM volunteer who served in Israel. “It affects everyone.”