

In small-town Illinois, a little church says goodbye

July 23, 2024

First Baptist Church survived a tornado, church schisms and two worldwide pandemics in over 150 years of ministry in small-town Illinois.

Active Christians value civic responsibility, study shows

July 23, 2024

Christians engaged in Scripture place the highest premiums on civic advocacy and engagement, the American Bible Society said in its latest release from the 2024 State of the Bible.

Faith and Gen Z: Kenzie Eifert

July 23, 2024

It's tough out there for Gen Z. But some graduates of Texas Baptist universities are bucking the negative trends.

Gibson trusts God in journey to second Olympics

July 23, 2024

Disappointed in her performance at the 2021 Olympics in Tokyo, Alison Gibson said goodbye to the sport of diving for good. At least, that was her intention.

Archeologist illuminates Scripture with science

July 23, 2024

Churches have been guilty of teaching half-truths, a real-life Indiana Jones said, but archeology can illuminate some scriptural texts.

Faith and Gen Z: Sarah Potts

July 23, 2024

Statistics on Gen Z paint a pessimistic picture, but some Gen Z graduates of Texas Baptist colleges tell a more optimistic story.

Churchgoers see public perception of Christians souring

July 23, 2024

Most churchgoers believe Christians have a good reputation with Americans in general, but they worry those feelings are starting to sour.

Surgeon General urges warning labels for social media

July 23, 2024

U.S. Surgeon General Vivek Murthy on June 17 called for warning labels to be placed on social media, saying in a post to X it is “an important contributor” to a youth mental health crisis.

More hope, less stress for Gen Zers engaged in Scripture

July 23, 2024

Scripture engagement improves hope and lowers stress in Gen Z, the American Bible Society said in its latest release.

Faith and Gen Z: Cynthia Montalvo

July 23, 2024

Since the oldest members of Gen Z began entering adulthood in 2014, studies have shown a pessimistic, struggling generation.

Historic all-sign-language 'Jesus' movie hits theaters

July 23, 2024

Joseph Josselyn remembers being fascinated by the 1977 drama 'Jesus of Nazareth.' But as a Deaf child, he had to rely on closed captions to catch the dialogue.

Bible societies research

Scripture as source of wisdom

July 23, 2024

One of the biggest research projects into Scripture ever conducted is looking into how people use the Bible and what it means to them.