

Webinar urges compassion in dementia care and ministry

May 6, 2024

A May 2 webinar urged sensitivity and compassion in ministering to people with dementia and their caregivers.

How a praise song became a Christian nationalist theme

May 6, 2024

Protesters sang “How Great Is Our God” during the Jericho marches that preceded the Jan. 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol, and it has been a staple at Christian nationalism conferences in recent years.

Why faith-based groups are prone to sexual abuse

May 6, 2024

Sexual abuse has proved pervasive across institutions. And when it comes to faith groups, no creed, structure, value system or size has seemed immune.

Christian nationalists lead pro-Israel rally at Columbia

May 6, 2024

Christian nationalist activist Sean Feucht, pastor Russell Johnson and author Eric Metaxas led a pro-Israel rally at Columbia University.

Baylor's Disability & Church conversation emphasizes belonging

May 6, 2024

Erik Carter challenged participants at a Baylor University conference to be catalysts for change—so all really do belong.

Mainstream media giants accused of sexual exploitation

May 6, 2024

Many turn to LinkedIn for updates on industry insiders, but among the billion professionals featured alongside respected companies are sexual exploitation leaders such as Pornhub and OnlyFans.

Locke says Easter Bible burning a sign of attack

May 6, 2024

A Tennessee pastor known for burning books, casting out demons and creating outrage says someone burned 200 Bibles outside his church on Easter Sunday.s

Survey links religious practice to life satisfaction

May 6, 2024

The results of a new Global Flourishing Study found links between religiosity and people's satisfaction with their lives.

Study: Unaffiliated the only growing religious group in U.S.

May 6, 2024

Religious churn has been a key fixture of U.S. religion for a long time, but a new survey of changes in American religion finds that motion is not so much a swirling but a one-way stream heading out.

Author Leah Payne details the rise and fall of CCM

May 6, 2024

'God Gave Rock & Roll to You' is a new history of the cultural power of contemporary Christian music from religious historian Leah Payne.

Easter remains a high attendance day for most churches

May 6, 2024

Most pastors expect one of their largest crowds of the year at church on Easter, but those expectations have tempered some in the past decade.

More than half of Americans rarely go to church

May 6, 2024

More than half of Americans (56 percent) say they seldom or never attend religious services, according to new data from Gallup.