

Discovery indicates Jewish rebels captured Roman weapons

September 11, 2023

Archaeologists discovered a cache of four 1,900-year-old Roman swords in a cave east of Jerusalem, all of them remarkably well-preserved.

Religious exodus explored in ‘The Great Dechurching’

September 11, 2023

“More people have left the church in the last 25 years than all the new people who became Christians from the First Great Awakening, Second Great Awakening, and Billy Graham crusades combined,” Jim Davis and Michael Graham write in “The Great Dechurching.”

Church dynamics still in flux

after pandemic

September 11, 2023

Three years after the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, churches have fewer people in the pews but more money in the collection plate and less conflict than they had in 2020.

Evangelical political scientist explores shift in values

September 11, 2023

An evangelical political scientist says recent trends reveal the culture is quickly shifting on issues such as adultery, pornography and abortion.

Who believes seeing ‘nonexistent’ racism is a big problem?

September 11, 2023

In April, Pew asked Americans which was the bigger problem facing the country when it comes to matters of race: People overlooking racism when it exists or seeing racism in places where there is none.

New movie depicts story of pro baseball player Rickey Hill

September 11, 2023

The Hill tells the inspirational true story of professional baseball player Rickey Hill, the son of a Southern Baptist pastor.

Anti-woke activist sees white nationalism in churches

September 11, 2023

Owen Strachan, anti-woke activist, has spent years warning that liberals were undermining America's evangelical churches. Now he is taking aim at a new threat: "mono-ethnic Christian nationalism."

Prosperity gospel beliefs on the rise among churchgoers

September 11, 2023

Many Americans believe financial prosperity is God's plan for them, but they need to give more to ensure that blessing, a Lifeway Research study showed.

American senior adults suffer greatest increase in suicides

September 11, 2023

Senior adults suffered the largest increase in suicides among Americans as nearly 50,000 people in the United States killed themselves in 2022, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention said in its latest report.

Gen Z changed through Scripture despite decline in use

September 11, 2023

Most Gen Z adults say their lives have been transformed through Scripture despite their three-year decline in Bible engagement, the American Bible Society said in the latest chapter of the 2023 State of the Bible.

Protestant pastors say fear prevalent in pews

September 11, 2023

A Lifeway Research study finds about 7 in 10 U.S. Protestant pastors (69 percent) believe there is a growing sense of fear within their congregations about the future of the nation and world.

Anne Graham Lotz and daughter discuss life and death

September 11, 2023

Anne Graham Lotz and Rachel-Ruth Lotz Wright—the daughter and granddaughter of the late evangelist Billy Graham—both are Bible teachers who have both endured serious medical conditions.