

As deportation fears mount, churches feel financial strain

July 25, 2025

At Celebration Church, a Portuguese- and English-speaking Baptist congregation in the Boston area, the benevolence fund is supposed to be there to help church families meet basic needs, such as food, clothing and heat, throughout the year.

---

Scheffler finds fulfillment in faith and family

July 25, 2025

Scottie Scheffler finds a lot of joy in playing golf at the highest level, but he finds fulfillment in his faith and his family.

---

Duo desires to help shape lives with Scripture songs

July 25, 2025

While leading worship for children's camps such as Mt. Lebanon Baptist

Encampment in Cedar Hill, the husband-and-wife worship duo Dave and Jess Ray—otherwise known as “Doorpost Songs”—seek to influence the rising generation by developing Scripture-based songs and resources to help children easily remember key passages.

---

Christian broadcasters ask listeners to support AM radio

July 25, 2025

The National Association of Broadcasters reports 80 million Americans still listen to AM radio each month on over 4,000 AM stations. However, AM radio now faces an existential threat: removal from cars.

---

Program reduces barriers to theological education

July 25, 2025

A network of Ascent-related seminaries, including Baylor University’s Truett Theological Seminary, will launch a pilot program this fall hoping to open the door to theological education to a cohort of students for whom “taking the first step” has been an obstacle.

---

‘Lift Every Voice and Sing’ celebrates 125 years

July 25, 2025

“Lift Every Voice and Sing,” a hymn many African Americans of older generations just know, celebrates 125 years .

---

Many churchgoers participate in more than one

July 25, 2025

Five years after the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, almost half of churchgoers are regular participants in congregations other than their primary one, either attending in person, watching online or on TV, or both.

---

Christian musician Michael Tait

admits to ‘double life’

July 25, 2025

Days after an investigation revealed allegations of sexual assault against Christian musician Michael Tait, the former Newsboys frontman publicly admitted to abusing cocaine and alcohol and touching men “in an unwanted sensual way.”

---

Walter Brueggemann, influential biblical scholar, dies at 92

July 25, 2025

Walter Brueggemann, one of the most widely respected Bible scholars of the past century, died June 5 at his home in Michigan. He was 92.

---

Seminaries innovate and adapt to changing landscape

July 25, 2025

In recent years, many U.S. seminaries have faced existential threats fueled by the COVID-19 pandemic and a changing religious landscape.

---

MLK comic book still serves as nonviolence teaching tool

July 25, 2025

At cross-cultural gatherings in Bethlehem, West Bank, groups read from “Martin Luther King and the Montgomery Story” and discuss questions about achieving peace through nonviolent behavior.

---

Fuller LGBTQ policy unchanged but disagreement noted

July 25, 2025

The board of a leading evangelical seminary voted to affirm its long-standing belief that LBGTQ relationships are unbiblical. But Fuller Theological Seminary’s president acknowledged some “faithful” Christian denominations approve of same-sex relationships.