

Gallup study shows pandemic's lingering effects on kids

March 27, 2025

Five years after the COVID-19 pandemic, a Gallup study is sharing parents' perspectives on how that time has affected their children's social skills and mental health, as well as its impact on academics.

Student ministry leaders and parents share goals

March 27, 2025

Anecdotes often portray parents and student ministry leaders at odds, but both groups share a desire to see the next generation grow spiritually, a Lifeway Research study shows. Each also believes they have a positive, healthy relationship with the other.

Mission partnerships take shape at Ascent gathering

March 27, 2025

A “movement” focused on reengaging North America with the gospel that has been brewing for almost a decade is beginning to take a more defined shape, and Texas Baptists have quite a few seats at the table.

Gelsinger hopes to make AI a force for good and for God

March 27, 2025

Pat Gelsinger longed has believed faith and technology can be forces for good in the world. Now the former Intel CEO hopes to put AI to work for God.

Are evangelical clergy outliers on science?

March 27, 2025

For years, studies have suggested many white evangelical Christians reject the scientific consensus that human actions are driving climate change. A just-published study of clergy in America confirms it.

African theologians look to Nicene Creed anniversary year

March 27, 2025

As Christian denominations in Africa join the preparation for the 1,700th anniversary of the First Council of Nicaea, clerics, theologians and laypeople are embracing the moment as a chance to reshape the continent's spiritual and social future.

Barr: Scripture doesn't make rules for pastors' wives

March 27, 2025

Imagine a job interview where, to get the gig, your spouse must answer intrusive questions about their fertility, personal religious beliefs and their own career trajectory.

Citizenship in heaven must impact citizenship here

March 27, 2025

Christians can change the world by practicing “radical obedience to Jesus,” Pastor Steve Bezner of Houston Northwest Baptist Church told participants at Christian Life Commission Advocacy Day in Austin.

Friends of Maston consider biblical principles of engagement

March 27, 2025

The T.B. Maston Foundation considered biblical principles for why and how Christians should engage in the public square.

Kingdom Baits aims to bring

Jesus to saltwater anglers

March 27, 2025

Greg Blank, Kingdom Baits founder and student at Stark Seminary and College, didn't grow up in church. He grew up fishing.

Conservative Christian media disagree about barring AP

March 27, 2025

Normally more likely to voice support for President Donald Trump's decisions, conservative Christian broadcasters expressed ambivalence about the White House's resolve to bar The Associated Press from presidential events.

Church historian and columnist Martin Marty dead at 97

March 27, 2025

Martin E. Marty, an eminent church historian, prolific chronicler and interpreter of religion and its role in public life, died at the age of 97 on Feb. 25 in a Minneapolis care facility where he spent his final years.