

Obituary: Craig Little

March 7, 2013

Craig Little, 56, Feb. 17, in Tyler. He was killed in an automobile accident when a driver that has been charged with driving under the influence of alcohol struck his truck from behind while he was delivering newspapers. Craig LittleHe was pastor of Antioch Baptist Church in Sand Flat at the time of his death. He began preaching at age 13. He served 43 years in evangelism, youth and radio ministry, and as a pastor. Among the churches he served were Martin Springs Baptist Church in Chandler, First Baptist and Hopewell Baptist churches in Swan, Temple Baptist Church in Tyler, Lamount Drive Baptist Church in Amarillo, Piney Grove Baptist Church in Atlanta, Open Door Baptist Church in Queen City and Hilltop Baptist Church in Alto. He was preceded in death by his brother, Kenneth. He is survived by his wife of 36 years, Marsha; sons, William and Benjamin; and daughter, Elisabeth Little.