

Book says religion of whiteness permeates US Christianity

May 22, 2024

“The Religion of Whiteness: How Racism Distorts Christian Faith” suggests as many as two-thirds of white Christians in the U.S. have elevated whiteness to a religion itself, one that rivals Christianity.

Around the State: HPU receives scholarship funds

May 22, 2024

Howard Payne University recently received $25,000 in scholarship funds from TexasBank through the James and Dorothy Doss Foundation.

Former Southwestern Seminary prof Matt Queen indicted

May 22, 2024

A former Southern Baptist seminary professor and interim provost has been indicted on a charge of obstructing justice in a sexual misconduct case, the Department of Justice announced May 21.

Executive Board authorizes GC2 study group

May 22, 2024

The Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board affirmed the creation of a study group concerning out-of-state churches that want to affiliate with Texas Baptists' GC2 network.

Board approves recommendations about women in ministry

May 22, 2024

The Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board voted in favor of Executive Committee recommendations on women in ministry in Texas. The measure was approved by three-fourths (75 percent) of the board.

BGCT committee endorses B.H. Carroll degree programs

May 22, 2024

Texas Baptists' Theological Education Council and Institutional Relations Committee endorsed multiple graduate degree programs that will be offered by B.H. Carroll Theological Seminary at East Texas Baptist University.

Increased corporate attention shown to religious diversity

May 22, 2024

Once taboo in the corporate world, religion is gaining traction in Fortune 500 diversity efforts, according to a new report from the Religious Freedom and Business Foundation.

SBC presidential nominees at a glance

May 22, 2024

With the current count standing at six nominees for president of the SBC, here is a bullet-point guide of where they stand on key issues.

How many churches use background checks?

May 22, 2024

Many congregations have adopted policies and procedures designed to screen out abusers and to report any abuse to authorities. But few denominations check to see if churches follow those procedures or track those who do.

Baylor regents approve expanded university motto

May 22, 2024

Baylor University's board of regents approved revising the university's motto, which has been unchanged for more than a century and a half.

New unit enables expanded disaster relief ministry

May 22, 2024

Thanks to the creativity of a Mississippi layman and a gift from California Baptists, Texans on Mission provided an expanded service to Southeast Texas families affected by recent flooding.

Williams sees family ministry as catalyst for revival

May 22, 2024

While serving as pastor of Wilcrest Baptist Church in Houston for a decade, Jonathan Williams felt a strong burden to help families combat the significant spiritual attacks, sins and struggles today's families face.