

Los pastores protestantes hispanos se enfrentan a necesidades congregacionales y comunitarias únicas

March 20, 2024

Los pastores de las iglesias protestantes hispanas de Estados Unidos tienen una inmensa gratitud por el papel que desempeñan, pero muchos se enfrentan a dificultades económicas.

Around the State: Bullock to present lectures at Wayland

March 20, 2024

“This Old House at 415: Letters from the Family” will be the topic April 10 when Wayland Baptist University hosts the 2024 Pinson Lectures, featuring Karen Bullock.

Texans on Mission provide hope in midst of desolation

March 20, 2024

Texans on Mission volunteers arrived in the Panhandle to provide critical help—diesel many ranches are struggling to get in the aftermath of the fires and much needed hay to feed the surviving cattle.

Louisiana Reach Haiti staff trapped in Port-au-Prince

March 20, 2024

Louisiana Baptists and others urgently are praying for the safe return of two Louisiana Reach Haiti Children's Village staff members trapped in Port-au-Prince, capital city of a country that has seen a rapid increase in gang activity.

Obituary: Stewart Morris

March 20, 2024

Stewart Morris, one of the founding fathers of what is now Houston Christian University, died March 11. He was 104.

Ukrainian Baptists seek prayer and support

March 20, 2024

More than two years after Russia's intensified assault on Ukraine began, Ukrainian Baptists appealed to "brothers and sisters in Christ in the United States" for prayer and support.

Most Americans say religion's influence is waning

March 20, 2024

As the United States continues to debate the fusion of faith and politics, a sweeping new survey reports most American adults have a positive view of religion's role in public life but believe its influence is waning.

China's government most restrictive of religion globally, Pew says

March 20, 2024

China is the most religiously oppressive government globally, Pew Research Center said, citing 20 categories of persecution.

On the Move: Henderson

March 20, 2024

Pastoral change noted for church in Athens.

Dip in U.S. support for LGBTQ rights across religious groups

March 20, 2024

Most Americans continue to support LGBTQ rights, but a new poll from PRRI shows a dip in support, including among religious Americans.

New language translation of Luke celebrated

March 20, 2024

On Feb. 25, three congregations of Banyamulenge refugees from the Democratic Republic of the Congo received the first translations of Luke.

Around the State: ETBU annual Women's Summit

March 20, 2024

Texas Baptist institutions announce events, awards and acquisitions; a pastor retirement and a pastor anniversary.