

Congreso challenges students to find identity in Christ

April 10, 2024

Texas Baptist leader Julio Guarneri challenged young people at Congreso 2024 to recognize their identify as individuals whom God loves unconditionally and is calling to be part of his redemptive plan.

Pastors sign declaration opposing religious nationalism

April 10, 2024

A group of Christian pastors, theologians and scholars signed a declaration committing the signers to preaching on “real moral issues” ahead of the 2024 election and opposing what the group calls “religious nationalism.”

Around the State: Wayland students ‘Serve Plainview’

April 10, 2024

More than 50 Wayland Baptist University students, faculty and staff, assisted a dozen nonprofit organizations during Serve Plainview.

Small change sparks San Antonio church revitalization

April 10, 2024

Despite a history spanning 102 years on the west side of San Antonio, St. Luke Baptist Church's future had begun to look bleak.

Global religious freedom able to draw bipartisan support

April 10, 2024

Elected officials who differ on most issues broadly agree about the importance of global freedom of religion and belief, two former ambassadors-at-large for international religious freedom asserted.

Questions surround killing of Kachin Baptist minister

April 10, 2024

Unanswered questions continue to surround the violent death of a Baptist minister in northern Myanmar's Kachin state.

El ministerio español de Bear Creek atrae multitudes

April 10, 2024

Bear Creek en Español, que celebra la fidelidad que conduce al crecimiento, está planificando un crecimiento aún mayor mientras ministra a su diversa comunidad.

Merits of Patterson case argued before appeals court panel

April 10, 2024

Nearly a year after its original dismissal, attorneys argued the merits of a lawsuit against Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Paige

Patterson, the school's former president, before a three-judge appeals court panel April 3.

'Jesus' in sign language premieres in Arlington

April 10, 2024

A new version of the Jesus Film, performed in American Sign Language (ASL) by deaf actors and crew members, premiered April 4 in Arlington.

Knights use over-the-top object lessons to share the gospel

April 10, 2024

By using over-the-top object lessons, Christian illusionists David and Kylie Knight entertain audiences in a variety of settings while sharing the gospel.

Indiana court upholds injunction on abortion ban

April 10, 2024

The Indiana Court of Appeals has upheld a lower court's injunction on the state's near-total abortion ban, giving another win to those who say the ban ignores their religious beliefs about when human life begins.

Texans on Mission build church playground in Fritch

April 10, 2024

Texans on Mission volunteers from Paramount Baptist Church in Amarillo returned to Fritch in recent days to complete a project they learned about during a disaster relief deployment.