

Obituary: Arlen White

November 8, 2024

Waylon Arlen White, a Howard Payne University alumnus, longtime coach and Baptist layman, died Oct. 25 in San Angelo. He was 89.

Popular 20th century Baptist radio programs accessible

November 8, 2024

Thanks to an ongoing project of the Southern Baptist Historical Library and Archives, listeners today can hear recordings of Baptist radio programs featuring some of the great preachers of the 20th century.

Faith groups resolve to protect migrants and refugees

November 8, 2024

Former President Donald Trump's election to a second term—after campaigning on blocking migration and carrying out record deportations—prompted faith groups that work with migrants and refugees to reaffirm their commitment to continue their work.

White Christians made Donald Trump president again

November 8, 2024

The support of white Christians once again proved key to Donald Trump's election victory.

Religious minorities continue to be targeted in Burma

November 8, 2024

Myanmar—historically known as Burma—is “a disintegrating nation” where leaders of religious minorities continue to be targeted by the military, a report from the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom stated.

Around the State: Buckner hosts empowering vulnerable households roundtable

November 8, 2024

In an effort to foster collaboration and address economic challenges in DFW, Buckner recently hosted a roundtable discussion.

Obituary: Bobby Don Van Dyke

November 8, 2024

Bobby Don Van Dyke, a longtime Texas Baptist pastor, died Oct. 22 in Gatesville after a lengthy illness. He was 82.

Hunt lawsuit delayed, Sills trial set for 2026

November 8, 2024

A defamation trial involving the Southern Baptist Convention that was supposed to begin next week has been delayed indefinitely, while another is set for 2026.

Desperately seek God's presence, imprisoned pastor urges

November 8, 2024

"Can God trust you?" if you are called to pay a price for following Jesus, an American pastor who was imprisoned in Turkey asked.

Four Gateway elders removed after pastor's sex abuse

November 8, 2024

Four elders at Gateway Church, whose senior pastor stepped down earlier this year, have been removed after the results of a law firm's investigation of sexual abuse allegations against the pastor were announced in a sermon Nov. 3.

Ministry offers aid to 4,000 civilians in besieged Gaza

November 8, 2024

Christian Mission to Gaza recently has provided food and clean drinking water to more than 4,000 people in the war-torn country, the former pastor of Gaza Baptist Church reported.

DBU gathering urges prayer for the persecuted

November 8, 2024

Dallas Baptist University's Institute for Global Engagement hosted a global gathering to pray for persecuted religious minorities, Oct. 24-25.