

Lawsuit advances against Conservative Baptist Network pastor

January 30, 2024

A Louisiana pastor with ties to the Conservative Baptist Network and to House Speaker Mike Johnson will be headed back to court in February.

Barber discusses sexual abuse, Law amendment

January 30, 2024

In a conversation spanning nearly 90 minutes and covering much-discussed topics in Southern Baptist Convention life, SBC President Bart Barber answered questions from the pastor of First Baptist Church in Jacksonville, Fla.

Texas Baptists consider impact of personal evangelism

January 30, 2024

As Texas Baptists gathered at Trinity Baptist Church in San Antonio Jan. 21-22 for the statewide Evangelism Conference, past acts of personal evangelism were celebrated nearly as often as future acts were exhorted.

Obituary: Sheila Cook

January 30, 2024

Sheila Cook, former first lady of Dallas Baptist University, died Jan. 27 after a brief illness. She was 75.

Obituary: Darrell Robinson

January 30, 2024

Darrell Woner Robinson, longtime Texas Baptist pastor and evangelist, died Jan. 23 in Conroe. He was 88.

Hedgepath elected as first woman to lead Wayland

January 30, 2024

Wayland Baptist University named Donna Hedgepath, provost and vice president of academic affairs at Campbellsville University in Kentucky, as president-elect.

Christian couple beaten by mob at police station in India

January 30, 2024

A 300-person mob beat and threatened to kill a Christian couple at a police station in Karnataka State, India, after the wife was falsely accused of forced conversion, Christian Solidarity Worldwide reported Jan. 23.

Baptists help meet mental health care needs in Ukraine

January 30, 2024

Baptists in the United States and abroad continue to help Ukraine meet mental health needs exacerbated by Russia’s war on the country, a conflict nearing its second anniversary.

Gaza Baptists report damage, severe shortages

January 30, 2024

Bombing in Gaza damaged the Baptist church there, and a church leader reported people in the region face continued food and water shortages.

New Pew study debunks myths about the nonreligious

January 30, 2024

America’s religiously unaffiliated—the “nones”—largely are defined by what they are not, rather than what they are. So, as they’ve multiplied, it’s perhaps unsurprising they’ve also been shrouded in myths and misconceptions.

Ugandan youth grow stronger physically, spiritually

January 30, 2024

The Youth Running Club—a TBM outreach to youth in rural Ugandan villages—helps young people grow stronger both physically and spiritually.

Religious donors keep giving amid inflation

January 30, 2024

Religious Americans are continuing to give to their houses of worship and other causes with money and in-kind donations despite rising costs for daily living, a new report shows.