

TBM sends disaster recovery teams to Maui

October 11, 2023

A 13-member Texas Baptist Men volunteer team left Texas traveling to Maui Oct. 7 to help with recovery in the aftermath of the wildfires that occurred in early August.

Guarneri wants BGCT to stay focused on mission

October 11, 2023

The Baptist General Convention of Texas' executive director-elect believes the greatest challenge facing Texas Baptists and their greatest opportunity are closely related.

Half of pastors say economy is hurting their churches

October 11, 2023

As churches continue to navigate economic challenges in the United States, half of surveyed pastors say the economy is harming their churches as giving fails to keep up with inflation.

Baptists in Israel urge prayer for safety, peace

October 11, 2023

At least a half dozen groups of Baptists were in Israel when Hamas launched a surprise attack on Israel this weekend.

TBM deploys specially trained team to meet needs in Israel

October 11, 2023

Trained Texas Baptist Men volunteers headed to Israel Oct. 8 after the nation erupted into warfare the day before, preparing to provide meals both for Israelis and Palestinians.

Nine from DBU still waiting to return from Israel

October 11, 2023

Nine members of a Dallas Baptist University group on a Holy Land tour remain in Israel, waiting to return home after the surprise attack by Hamas.

Interfaith friendships advance peace and religious freedom

October 11, 2023

Interfaith friendships promote peacemaking and provide the foundation for faith freedom to flourish, longtime Texas Baptist pastor Bob Roberts told participants at a 21Wilberforce event.

Hunger offering aids Sierra Leone economic development

October 11, 2023

Sixty families in rural northern Sierra Leone are reaping the benefits of a new cash crop, thanks to a ministry led by a Baylor University graduate and supported by the Texas Baptist Hunger Offering.

Few religious Americans see climate change as a crisis

October 11, 2023

Beliefs on the severity of climate change have not shifted much among religious traditions over the past decade and few religious Americans view climate change as a crisis, according to the PRRI study published Oct. 4.

Around the State: Baylor site of Collegiate Day of Prayer

October 11, 2023

Baylor University will serve as the originating site for the 2024 Collegiate Day of Prayer broadcast. Wayland Baptist University named Timothy Pierce as dean of its School of Christian Studies.

SBC cooperation group begins its work

October 11, 2023

A group commissioned to study cooperation in the Southern Baptist Convention will use subgroups to study Southern Baptist documents and processes, as well as gathering insights from local, state and national sources.

Pastors fight for legal residency after visa rule change

October 11, 2023

Albert Oliveira and his wife, a German citizen, need green cards to remain in the United States and allow Oliveira to continue his pastorate at First Baptist Church in Gordon.