

DOE confirms Baylor University's religious exemption

August 14, 2023

The U.S. Department of Education confirmed Baylor University's religious exemption from a narrow range of Title IX provisions, particularly regarding LGBTQ students.

Arlington pastor to chair cooperation group

August 14, 2023

Southern Baptist Convention President Bart Barber announced a North Carolina pastor will chair the abuse reform implementation task force and an Arlington pastor will chair the cooperation group formed in response to a motion at the 2023 SBC annual meeting.

Merritt says motion about seeking clarity, not judging

August 14, 2023

Merritt called for “clarity” and “consistency” in his motion to form a task force to examine what it means for a church to be deemed in “friendly cooperation” with the SBC.

Progressive National Baptists partner for social justice

August 14, 2023

Leaders of the Progressive National Baptist Convention announced plans to work on enhancing voting rights and criminal justice reform through partnerships with like-minded organizations.

White evangelical pulpits and pews politically in sync

August 14, 2023

A new study published in the latest issue of Politics and Religion, a quarterly journal, shows there’s no evidence white evangelical clergy are less conservative politically than their congregations.

Religious violence in India a problem for US politicians

August 14, 2023

American politicians are under increasing pressure to account for their courtship of Indian Prime Minister Modi, while ignoring the Indian regime's oppression of religious minorities.

Around the State: UMHB students pack meals as part of Love CTX

August 14, 2023

More than 350 University of Mary Hardin-Baylor students participated in a Love CTX community service project as part of Welcome Week.

Randel Everett made global impact at 21Wilberforce

August 14, 2023

Randel Everett recently told the board of 21Wilberforce he plans to retire at the end of the year as the organization's president.

On the Move: Humphries, Spruill

August 14, 2023

Pastoral changes affect churches in Waco and Rotan.

Protestant pastors say fear prevalent in pews

August 14, 2023

A Lifeway Research study finds about 7 in 10 U.S. Protestant pastors (69 percent) believe there is a growing sense of fear within their congregations about the future of the nation and world.

Discipleship Collective trains church leaders to equip others

August 14, 2023

The Discipleship Collective is an effort to provide training and resources for church leaders “to equip (Christ’s) people for works of service” (Ephesians 4:12).

Anne Graham Lotz and daughter discuss life and death

August 14, 2023

Anne Graham Lotz and Rachel-Ruth Lotz Wright—the daughter and granddaughter of the late evangelist Billy Graham—both are Bible teachers who have both endured serious medical conditions.