

Texas Baptists to explore ministerial residency program

November 15, 2022

Texas Baptists will explore the creation of a residency program that would enable young ministers to work alongside and learn from experienced ministers.

BGCT hears task force report, elects officers

November 15, 2022

Messengers to the Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting heard a report from a task force created to enhance Gen Z and Millennial engagement in Texas Baptist life.

Messengers urged to believe God, invest in church planting

November 15, 2022

A bivocational church planter urged Texas Baptists to “believe God,” not simply “believe in God.”

UMHB football player honors brother’s recovery

November 15, 2022

Brock Stricklin didn’t know a brain tumor was causing the headaches wracking him in early 2019.

Apologists urge former Ravi Zacharias leaders to repent

November 15, 2022

A statement released by Christian apologists says three former members of Ravi Zacharias’ inner circle “are not fit to be in ministry and leadership positions” because of their response to his sexual misconduct.

Phoenix pastor a missionary to Christian nationalists

November 15, 2022

Caleb Campbell, pastor of Desert Springs Bible Church in Phoenix, sees himself as a missionary to Christian nationalists.

HSU trustees grant president three-year extension

November 15, 2022

The Hardin-Simmons University board of trustees has offered to extend by three years the contract of President Eric Bruntmyer, who in recent weeks received votes of no-confidence from the school's faculty.

Obituary: Lynda Ballou

November 15, 2022

Lynda Ballou, longtime teacher and children's ministry volunteer at First Baptist Church in Arlington, died Oct. 24 after a prolonged illness. She was 80.

Llano pastor teaches Koinonia Karate

November 15, 2022

Pastor Matt Richard uses his giftedness in the martial arts to connect with his community and teach character-building lessons, particularly—but not exclusively—to children.

Scripture-engaged give more, gain greater hope

November 15, 2022

Scripture-engaged Americans give more to churches and charities than others, reaping more hope and purpose through the process, the American Bible Society said in its 2022 State of the Bible report.

College ministry moves into a post-pandemic world

November 15, 2022

When COVID-19 caused global shutdowns in spring 2020, Baptist Student Ministries on university campuses had to adapt quickly to discipling students remotely. And they still are discovering what campus ministry looks like as society emerges from a global pandemic.

On the Move: Bahlmann

November 15, 2022

Leesville church calls bivocational pastor.