

Around the State: Student Athlete Mental Health Endowment at Baylor

October 4, 2022

Baylor University announced a gift from Jarred and Kay Nan Sloan of Houston supporting Baylor Athletics and resourcing Athletics Mental Health Services, which ensures access for Baylor's student-athletes to mental health services.

Christians murdered, thousands displaced in Nigeria

October 4, 2022

Dozens of Christians were murdered and 6,000 displaced in terrorist attacks in Nigeria's middle belt in September.

Corpus Christi pastor plans to pray in death chamber

October 4, 2022

The State of Texas is scheduled to execute John Henry Ramirez on Oct. 5, and his pastor plans to be in the death chamber to lay a hand on him and pray for him.

TBM volunteers head to Florida to help hurricane survivors

October 4, 2022

The first wave of Texas Baptist Men volunteers are headed to Florida to meet needs caused by Hurricane Ian.

Partnership brings groceries to South Dallas food desert

October 4, 2022

By working collaboratively, two Dallas-area nonprofit organizations with Texas Baptist connections will bring free groceries and other services to a South Dallas food desert.

Religion big predictor in support for Confederate memorials

October 4, 2022

When it comes to memorializing the nation's Civil War legacy, Americans are nearly evenly divided over whether to preserve Confederate symbols, memorials and statues, according to a new Public Religion Research Institute survey.

BJC chief: Recognize separate duties to God and country

October 4, 2022

In a season in which "democracy itself is being challenged," American Christians can learn from Jesus' admonition to render to Caesar and to God that which belongs to each, the leader of the Baptist Joint Committee told a Dallas church.

Greenway not going to IMB as previously announced

October 4, 2022

Former Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary President Adam W. Greenway announced he will not move to a new position with the International Mission Board.

Around the State: TBM helps Waco church meet needs in Cuba

October 4, 2022

Texas Baptist Men helped Peter Dyson of Waco and Travis Caywood of China Spring collect much-needed supplies as part of First Baptist Church of Woodway's ongoing ministry in Cuba.

Obituary: Robert G. Russell

October 4, 2022

Robert "Bob" Glynn Russell, longtime coordinator of technical services for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, died September 21 in hospice care in Dallas. He was 91.

CenturyMen male chorus disbanding after 53 years

October 4, 2022

After 53 years, the CenturyMen male chorus performed their last concert Sept. 17.

Seminary names Dockery interim president, Hawkins adviser

October 4, 2022

In an abrupt change of plans, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary trustees announced David Dockery will serve as the school's interim president and O.S. Hawkins as senior adviser and ambassador-at-large following the departure of Adam Greenway as president.