

Fewer than half of Americans may be Christian by 2070

September 14, 2022

If current trends continue, Christians could make up less than half of the population—and perhaps as little as a third—in 50 years.

Former Baylor President Ken Starr dies at 76

September 14, 2022

Ken Starr, the former independent counsel in the Clinton administration Whitewater investigation who later became president and chancellor of Baylor University, died Sept. 13 at age 76.

Woodson wants to help abuse survivors receive therapy

September 14, 2022

For years, Jules Woodson has advocated for reform in the Southern Baptist Convention, hoping to assist survivors of sexual abuse and hold abusers to account. Now she's joined a nonprofit effort to connect abuse survivors with mental health services and counseling.

Court blocks recognition of LGBTQ club at Jewish school

September 14, 2022

The Supreme Court has temporarily blocked a court order that would have forced Yeshiva University to recognize an LGBTQ group as an official campus club.

How Samaritan's Purse became a global relief powerhouse

September 14, 2022

Each week, in a hulking warehouse in a small town in North Carolina, Samaritan's Purse employees load semi trailers full of supplies for the people of Ukraine: medicines, food, tarps, blankets, hygiene kits and school bags for kids.

Queen Elizabeth II spoke openly of her Christian faith

September 14, 2022

Elizabeth II of England, Britain's longest-serving monarch and official head of the Church of England, died Sept. 8 at Balmoral Castle in Scotland at age 96.

Gen Z leads in desire to share their faith

September 14, 2022

Gen Z—adults 25 and younger—lead all ages in their openness to spiritual conversations, the Bible society said Sept. 8 in releasing its latest chapter of the 2022 State of the Bible.

New church construction reflects changing needs

September 14, 2022

Churches are getting a new look with architects and ministry leaders focused on the needs of today.

Ukrainian Baptists sow 'seeds of hope' in war zone

September 14, 2022

Six months after the Russian invasion of Ukraine, Baptists inside the embattled nation and in neighboring countries continue ministry in a war zone and begin preparation for what could be a hard winter.

Texas Baptists and Send Relief launch Laredo ministry center

September 14, 2022

A new ministry center will open in Laredo as part of a partnership between Texas Baptists' River Ministry and Send Relief.

Around the State: DBU event benefits international students

September 14, 2022

Dallas Baptist University welcomed a record number of international students from more than 50 countries this fall and helped ease their arrival to a new country with a special event Aug. 25.

Violence threatens religious freedom in Nigeria

September 14, 2022

Violence by Islamist groups, mob violence against people accused of blasphemy, identity-based violence and violence targeting worship threaten freedom of religion in Nigeria, a new report from the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom states.