

Around the State: DBU event benefits international students

September 7, 2022

Dallas Baptist University welcomed a record number of international students from more than 50 countries this fall and helped ease their arrival to a new country with a special event Aug. 25.

Violence threatens religious freedom in Nigeria

September 7, 2022

Violence by Islamist groups, mob violence against people accused of blasphemy, identity-based violence and violence targeting worship threaten freedom of religion in Nigeria, a new report from the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom states.

China guilty of serious

violations, UN report says

September 7, 2022

A United Nations report found China has committed “serious human rights violations” and possibly “crimes against humanity” toward the Uyghur people and other ethnic minorities.

USDA exempts religious schools from nondiscrimination rules

September 7, 2022

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has clarified its guidance for religious schools that participate in a free school lunch program.

Pandemic pastoring report documents new era in ministry

September 7, 2022

Eileen Campbell-Reed of Union Theological Seminary surveyed more than 100 Christian pastors, chaplains, campus ministers and lay leaders from more than 20 denominations between June 2020 and April 2022.

Couple shares astronomy interest with HPU Summer Scholars

September 7, 2022

A Howard Payne University alumni couple contributed to their alma mater this summer by sharing their passion for astronomy with several of the university's youngest students.

Search committee asks Texas Baptists to pray daily

September 7, 2022

The Baptist General Convention of Texas executive director search committee is asking Texas Baptists to pray daily for their work and to participate in web-based regional listening sessions in November to help shape a position profile.

Around the State: Students engage in HPU research symposium

September 7, 2022

A graduate of Bangs High School and a senior at Brownwood High School participated in a four-week Summer Research Symposium at Howard Payne University. The strength and conditioning education program at University of Mary Hardin-Baylor is the first in the country to receive accreditation from the Council of Accreditation of Strength and Conditioning.

International Friends ministry makes a global difference

September 7, 2022

More than 50 years ago, members of First Baptist Church in Richardson decided to make a global impact without leaving home. They committed to befriend internationals in their community and help them learn English.

Obituary: Kerfoot Pollock Walker Jr.

September 7, 2022

Kerfoot Pollock Walker Jr. of Tyler, Christian physician and international missions volunteer, died Aug. 21. He was 92.

On the Move: McClure and Summers

September 7, 2022

Staff changes noted at churches in Victoria and Woodway.

Evangelicals say environmental activism biblically mandated

September 7, 2022

The National Association of Evangelicals unveiled a sweeping report on global climate change, laying out what its authors call the “biblical basis” for environmental activism to spur fellow evangelicals to address the planetary environmental crisis.