

Obituary: Bob Campbell

January 10, 2022

Robert G. “Bob” Campbell, longtime Texas Baptist pastor and former president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, died Dec. 14. He was 82

Replant can offer dying churches new life

January 10, 2022

LA City Baptist Church is a “replant”—an attempt to restore an older, dying congregation to health using some of the lessons gleaned from church plants.

Global ministry has deep Texas Baptist roots

January 10, 2022

A global ministry that has led to 25 million decisions for Christ over the past 50 years grew out of a small West Texas Baptist church and an unsuccessful cotton farmer’s vision for missions.

On the Move: Clayton

January 10, 2022

Pastoral change announced for Floydada church.

Colorado wildfire survivors look beyond fire and ash

January 10, 2022

Linda Hinkle didn't get "one more time" into her house. On Dec. 30, winds in excess of 100 mph drove the fire that would soon devour Hinkle's home alongside others in several communities west of Denver.

Preemptive Love board cuts ties with founders

January 10, 2022

Preemptive Love, a nonprofit long championed by Christian influencers and celebrities for its work in Iraq and elsewhere, plans to cut ties with its founders after former employees complained of an abusive work environment and misleading fundraising practices.

Estudiantes latinos tienen éxito en su posgrado con el apoyo de la Iniciativa Teológica Hispana

January 10, 2022

Según todos los informes, obtener un título de doctorado en los EE. UU. puede ser arduo, lento y agotador desde el punto de vista financiero. Sin embargo, la Iniciativa Teológica Hispana, que celebra su 25 aniversario este año, ha estado ampliando las filas de latinos con doctorados en religión y teología.

Heart of the City in Lewisville focuses on people

January 10, 2022

When COVID-19 hit North Texas in March 2020, Northview Baptist in Lewisville already was prepared to minister to its community's needs.

COVID-19 made life more daunting for seminarians

January 10, 2022

Seminarians graduate into a religious landscape that has been transformed—spiritually, physically, politically and logistically—by COVID-19, and this new reality is taking a toll on their mental health.

Church music landscape rearranged as big publishers close

January 10, 2022

If the church music publishing industry saw a step or two of decline in the 21st century, the COVID-19 pandemic took it down an octave.

Obituary: Kay Sandlin

January 10, 2022

Kay Taylor Sandlin, who served three decades as a preschool teacher at Beech Street Baptist Church in Texarkana, died Dec. 26 after a brief battle with cancer. She was 69.

TBM Builders rebuild church gym a hurricane destroyed

January 10, 2022

More than four years after Hurricane Harvey, Rockport still is recovering from storm damage. But thanks to Texas Baptist Men Builders, one church's recovery is much closer now than just a few months ago.