

Around the State: UMHB students serve during Big Event

April 14, 2021

More than 100 University of Mary Hardin-Baylor students, faculty and staff participated in the Big Event, a student-led day of service deploying teams to 15 sites around Bell County.

Leadership demands courage, commitment and compassion

April 14, 2021

Leaders who want to transform society need the courage to take risks, the commitment to seek excellence and the compassion to advocate for the vulnerable and voiceless, panelists told the Speak Freedom Conference at Dallas Baptist University.

Transformational leaders needed to fight for justice

April 14, 2021

God wants to raise up transformational leaders who will challenge injustice and fight for the oppressed, the founding president of the 21Wilberforce human rights organization said.

Baptists of Burma organize Washington rally against coup

April 14, 2021

Clara Thethet Tunwin and other organizers planned a mass protest on April 10 in Washington, D.C., against the coup in Myanmar.

McAllen church experiences revival through online ministry

April 14, 2021

Instead of being slowed down by limitations from the COVID-19 pandemic, BT.Church in McAllen instead experienced an increased revival in part due to a revamping of its online ministry.

Texas faith leaders condemn new election bills

April 14, 2021

Faith leaders condemned a pair of controversial election bills working their way through the Texas Legislature, accusing lawmakers of trying to “dress up Jim and Jane Crow in a tuxedo.”

Public policy leader Weston Ware dies at age 88

April 14, 2021

Weston Ware, a leader in the fight against legalized gambling both during and after his time with the Texas Baptist Christian Life Commission, died April 6. He was 88.

Baptists in Ukraine urge prayer for peace

April 14, 2021

In light of a buildup of Russian troops on the Ukrainian border, Baptists in Ukraine called on Christians around the world to pray for peace in their nation.

Journal article explores views of Truett and Criswell on racism

April 14, 2021

A Southern Baptist academic journal examines the “lost legacies” of George W. Truett and W.A. Criswell regarding matters of race and racism in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Congregational song teaches fundamentals of faith

April 14, 2021

Congregational singing offers one of the best ways for churches to teach theological truth, but its instructional element often is its most neglected aspect, a Baylor University professor of church music told an online audience.

Christian campus groups win in federal court

April 14, 2021

Federal courts recently delivered victories to student faith-based groups that were kicked off state university campuses for requiring their leaders to be Christians.

Christian school in Liberia plans to rebuild after destruction

April 14, 2021

The Dellana West O'Brien school building was destroyed when a man in the community who was angry over a land dispute allegedly drove a bulldozer through the campus.