

LifeWay offers free at-home supplement

March 18, 2020

To help families during the COVID-19 crisis, LifeWay is offering “LifeWay Kids at Home,” a free temporary digital resource to supplement Sunday school from home.

Southern Baptist seminaries move to online-only classes

March 18, 2020

Like other schools that have cancelled in-person courses to deter the spread of COVID-19, all six Southern Baptist Convention seminaries have taken action to move classes online.

God cares for immigrants, author tells Baylor students

March 18, 2020

Throughout the Bible, God demonstrates special concern for immigrants, a

Guatemala-born author reminded Baylor University students.

Baylor Collaborative partners to deliver food to rural students

March 18, 2020

The Baylor Collaborative on Hunger and Poverty has joined in a national effort with the U.S. Department of Agriculture and others to deliver food boxes to students in some rural schools closed to help curb the spread of COVID-19.

COVID-19 forces churches to get creative quickly

March 18, 2020

Increasingly stringent public health guidelines regarding the COVID-19 outbreak not only forced Texas Baptist churches to make rapid adjustments to worship, but also to think creatively about how to minister in the weeks ahead.

TBM places all disaster relief volunteers on alert

March 18, 2020

Texas Baptist Men has placed all of its disaster relief volunteers and mobile kitchens on alert in the midst of the coronavirus pandemic sweeping the globe.

Family wants Sandefer name and remains removed from HSU

March 18, 2020

Family members of a longtime president of Simmons College asked Hardin-Simmons University to remove their family's name from its buildings and to allow the remains of J.D. "Prexy" Sandefer to be relocated from the campus to "a more suitable resting place."

BGCT youth give their spring break to serving others

March 18, 2020

Construction sounds filled the air March 12 and 13 at 11 work sites in Waco as Bounce Student Disaster Recovery volunteers worked on home repairs.

Texas Baptist universities respond to COVID-19

March 18, 2020

Several Texas Baptist universities extended spring break by one week—at least for students in on-campus classes—due to the COVID-19 pandemic and announced plans to provide online-only classes.

Baptists in Italy cope with national lockdown

March 18, 2020

In spite of a national lockdown prompted by the COVID-19 pandemic,

Baptists in Italy are using technology to provide worship opportunities and maintain contact with church members and neighbors.

Texas UFM continues stepping out in faith

March 18, 2020

With “Steppin’ Out in Faith” as their theme, members of Unión Femenil Misionera of Texas met in Lubbock to celebrate God’s blessings and hear reports on new initiatives that demand continued faith—including the launch of Unión Femenil Misionera de las Américas.

Zorzoli urges Baptist women to take a leap of faith

March 18, 2020

When faced with obstacles, Alicia Zorzoli challenged Hispanic Baptist women to take a “leap of faith.”