

Bill Moyers had deep and abiding Texas Baptist ties

June 30, 2025

Bill Moyers, a renowned broadcast journalist with strong Texas Baptist roots, died June 26 in New York, N.Y. He was 91.

Federal agents arrest Iranian Christian asylum-seekers

June 30, 2025

Two Iranian Christian asylum-seekers were arrested by masked federal agents in Los Angeles on June 24. Their pastor recorded the event on video and posted it on social media.

Christian broadcasters ask listeners to support AM radio

June 30, 2025

The National Association of Broadcasters reports 80 million Americans still listen to AM radio each month on over 4,000 AM stations. However, AM radio now faces an existential threat: removal from cars.

Faith groups say probe violates their religious freedom

June 30, 2025

A House of Representatives investigation into dozens of religious organizations and denominations, from the U.S. Catholic bishops to the Unitarian Universalist Association, is being called a violation of the groups' religious liberty.

Program reduces barriers to theological education

June 30, 2025

A network of Ascent-related seminaries, including Baylor University's Truett Theological Seminary, will launch a pilot program this fall hoping to open the door to theological education to a cohort of students for whom "taking the first step" has been an obstacle.

‘Brother Bob’ ministers to Midland through the decades

June 30, 2025

For more than four decades, almost every patient at Midland Memorial Hospital could count on a visit from “Brother Bob” Porterfield, pastor of West Kentucky Avenue Baptist Church in Midland.

Trump gained among Catholics, nonwhite Protestants

June 30, 2025

White evangelicals’ love for Donald Trump has been well documented. A new study examining the 2024 vote among nearly 7,100 voters shows the president won over the affections of many other Protestants beyond evangelicals—and Catholics, too.

On the Move: Billups, Traylor

June 30, 2025

Pastoral changes noted in McGregor and Cedar Hill.

Tennessee Supreme Court will hear SBC appeal in lawsuit

June 30, 2025

The Tennessee Supreme Court will hear the appeal of the Southern Baptist Convention in a case connected to an inquiry by the SBC Credentials Committee.

‘God Bless the USA Bible’ yields royalties for Trump

June 30, 2025

President Donald Trump earned more than a million dollars in royalties for endorsing the “God Bless the USA Bible,” a newly released annual financial disclosure from the White House revealed.

Around the State: HCU business students study in Spain

June 30, 2025

Graduate students from the MBA program at HCU recently spent 10 days immersed in learning international business in Spain and Portugal.

Obituary: Tommy Culwell

June 30, 2025

Tommy Culwell, Texas Baptist pastor and chaplain, died June 15. He was 74.